

Vote End To Rent Controls

House Would Quit Lids On Sept. 30 Except In Critical Defense Area Towns

The following order to end rent controls on September 30 will not, it is believed, affect Sedalia because this area has been declared a critical defense area. Such areas, it will be noted, are exempted from the order. Rent control is in effect here now and seemingly will be continued.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted today to end federal rent controls on Sept. 30, except in critical defense areas and cities specifically requesting control.

The vote, subject to roll-call reconsideration, was one more step toward final action on the administration's sharply reduced controls bill extender.

In areas designated as critical or in municipalities whose governing body requests, controls would be continued until March 31, 1953.

Rent Stabilizer Tighe Woods said last month that to limit rent controls to critical defense areas could deal "a knockout blow to the general over-all stabilization effort."

The rent decontrol provision was offered by Rep. Wheeler (D-Ga.) and adopted by a standing vote of 144 to 113.

Previously, the House beat 119 to 69, an amendment to end controls on June 30 of this year everywhere except in critical areas.

The present rent control law allows municipalities to retain federal controls unless they specifically request discontinuance. That law expires next Monday at midnight.

After voting on the rent control amendment, the House agreed to end all debate on the bill before 1 p. m. (CST) and to start voting by rollcall then on amendments already approved.

Amendments tentatively approved would end all wage and price controls on July 31 and prohibit them even during July on goods and materials not rationed or allocated.

And administration leaders had little hope of restoring the major control powers peeled away by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats in a week of heated debate.

There was one exception: Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts told newsmen he thought the House might reverse yesterday's 118 to 87 decision to end wage and price controls July 31.

Rep. Barden (D-NC) sponsored this amendment, Martin, who opposed it, said a Senate-House conference committee probably would knock it out of the final bill even if the House didn't cancel yesterday's tentative vote.

Even without the Barden amendment, however, the bill—originally drawn to continue President Truman's wage, price, rent and other control powers for a year—has been so sharply whittled by the House that some members said they'd be surprised if it wasn't sent back to committee.

In that case Congress could either allow all controls to die next Monday, when the present law expires, or pass a quick short-term extension of the present law.

As it now stands the House bill would:

End wage and price controls on July 31, 1952.

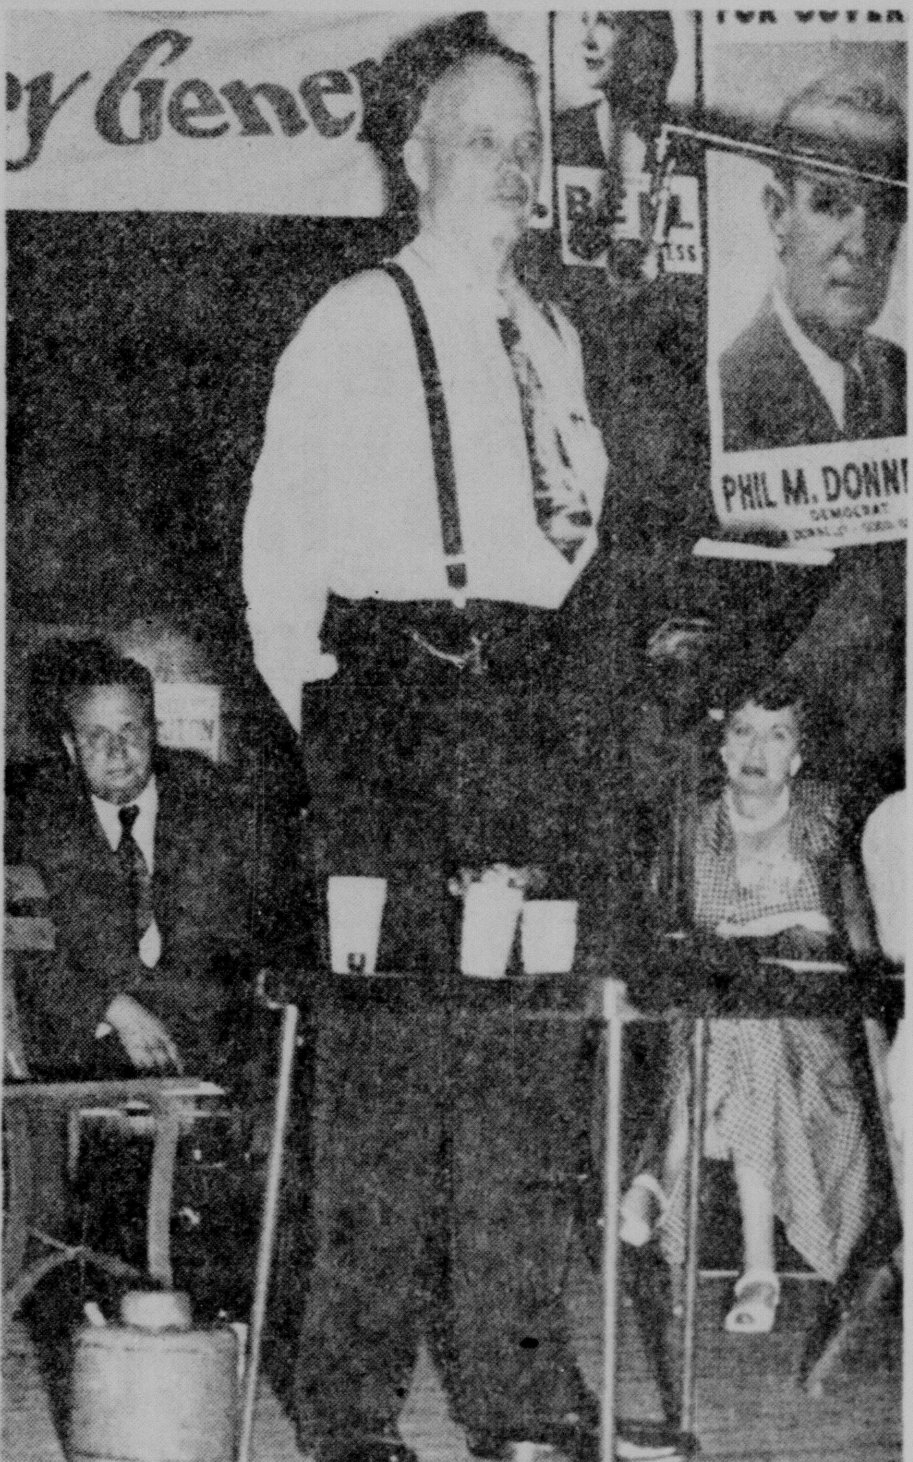

Continue until June 30, 1953, allocation and priority powers and rent control.

"Request" the President to try to stop the steel strike with a Taft-Hartley law injunction.

Reorganize the Wage Stabilization Board and take away its power to act in labor disputes.

The House left out of its bill all authority for the government to control private credit. This authority had been used in the past to regulate installment buying and house purchases.

Another amendment up for reconsideration today was by Rep. Tamm (R-Iowa). It would end practically all price controls after June 30. This amendment, approved by an unrecorded vote of 145 to 88, appeared to have a good chance of remaining in the bill.

Big Fund Cut Asked For Many U.S. Groups

25 Percent Slash for Armed Forces, Atomic House Appropriations Committee Requests Energy, Foreign Aid and Other Purposes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee recommended today a 25 per cent cut in new funds asked by the administration for the armed forces, foreign aid, atomic energy and a variety of other purposes.

In terms of cash, the purse-holding group's proposed reduction—which comes up for House action tomorrow and will be considered by the Senate later—was $3,467,688,250.

The committee, headed by Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), said the agencies involved should get along on $10,283,133,780 instead of the $13,750,888,280 President Truman asked.

The money provided in today's bill is separate from regular budget appropriations already considered by Congress for the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission. Their regular budgets, much larger, have been reduced already.

The new funds supplement appropriations already considered for the coming year or actually made for the present year, and are primarily for construction programs.

No big agencies were spared the committee's cuts. The largest was a $1,706,000,000 reduction in funds for the Atomic Energy Commission. This was 33 per cent less than the $3,191,000,000 requested.

The foreign aid program was chopped 25 to 250,120,000, from $6,326,000,750 to $4,750,940,750. The Defense Department, which wanted $2,993,868,440 for its construction programs, was allotted $2,187,899,840 a cut of $805,968,600.

A group of defense agencies was trimmed from $961,616,000 to $81,690,000, a reduction of $579,926,000, aimed at the Civil Defense Administration.

The Economic Stabilization Agency (ESA) got nothing, the committee saying it would consider ESA funds when Congress decides what to do about wage, price and rent controls. The agency wanted $103,250,000.

The Commerce and Interior Departments got what they requested, $716,536 for Commerce and $255,000 for Interior. The extra budget of $132,200 for Congress itself was approved in full.

The Labor Department was cut from $16,870,000 to $9,600,000, most of the cut being in funds for grants to states for unemployment compensation and employment service administration.

The Federal Security Agency was slashed from $110,710,400 to $10,537,750, the committee rejecting among other things the entire $80 million requested for school construction.

The $250,120,000 cut made by the committee in foreign aid funds was considerably less than some had expected. Earlier Congress shaved by 1 1/2 billions the President's request to authorize a $7,900,000,000 aid program.

Approximately 200 million dollars of the total reduction in the foreign aid request was in funds for military assistance.

The committee made an indirect plea to Congress not to make further cuts in funds for economic aid abroad. The money for this purpose is for "defense support," it explained, and results in increased arms output abroad. Further cuts, it said, "would be shortsighted."

Truman Orders Farm Labor Draft Stopped

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today told the armed services to quit recruiting farm workers if they are deferred from the draft for necessary production.

He said he was alarmed by the loss to the farms of six million workers in the last four years.

Kerr Says Election Will Determine If US Continues Prosperity or Goes to Confusion

In Talk Here Wednesday Night Oklahoma Senator, Presidential Aspirant, Says Ike, If He Wins, Can't Control Congress

Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma told a crowd of several hundred at Liberty Park Wednesday night that "we are having an election to see if we can go on in matchless prosperity and wealth and good times, or to halt in that passageway and take a detour through confusion and frustration."

Introduced by State Democratic Committee Chairman Frank Hayes of Sedalia, Senator Kerr, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, made the address at the big Democratic Rally planned and held by the Democratic organizations of Sedalia and Pettis County.

The senator commented on Gen. Eisenhower, saying he had a great admiration for the man. He said further that he had heard that Eisenhower had said: "I have taken off my uniform to come back to prevent a disaster. I am certain surrender would result in the tragedy of isolation." Sen. Kerr then remarked: "He didn't need to take off his uniform. The Democrats will see that Bob Taft does not win the election for President of the United States."

Ike Can't Get Congress

He went on further to say: "Someone ought to tell him (Eisenhower) that to win would create the same danger which he wishes to avoid. For if he wins, the Republicans will control Congress, which would be in charge of the Tafts, Martins and McCarthys. What would it profit if the Republicans elected a man who sponsored the bi-partisan foreign policy and then elected a Congress which would have no part of the policy to which the President ascribed."

The senator commented that the foreign policy is what is keeping us out of a third world war and that we should continue to use it.

Sen. Kerr's answer to Republican charges that we are paying the highest tax rate this country has ever seen was that last year there was more money left in circulation after federal taxes than ever before in the history of the country.

"Can Kick The World"

Lashing out at the Republican administration of some 20 years ago, Kerr told the audience, "If we can win against what Hoover and Stalin stand for, we can kick the world situation."

The Oklahoma senator then viewed the military armament program and the economic structure of the U. S. He said: "Today we are no longer second militarily to any country on the earth and we are steadily growing stronger."

Commenting on the economic situation, Kerr said that we must keep labor busy at good wages and farm crops productive at good prices. With these things, he said, the country would prosper.

However, Sen. Kerr told the Missouri Democrats: "The number one requirement is to maintain a preparedness program to guarantee the safety of our nation."

Main Crop Is Character

Before going through the farm problem Sen. Kerr said the main crop which we must harvest here is the development of character and of our natural resources.

The senator said that he favored a farm program that would "insure an abundance of food at reasonable cost to consumers and assure parity of income to our farm population." He is an advocate of 100 percent parity price supports for basic farm commodities.

The senator said that "we alone today stand as a bright star in the galaxy of nations to which the other nations in the world can come for help."

State and County Candidates Presented

Before Senator Kerr spoke several of the candidates for office in the county and state elections were introduced by J. W. Watts, city chairman, and Emmett Sullivan, county chairman of the Democratic Party.

Presented for county offices were: John F. Taylor, for sheriff; Jerry Trotter, for assessor; Miss Louise O'Leary, for judge of the eastern district; L. P. Probst, for public administrator; E. L. "Red" Birdsong, for judge of the eastern district; Charles Scruton, for judge of the eastern district; Wil-

William F. Brown presented the candidates for the state officers and the positions which they were seeking. They were: John A. Johnston, who was not present, U. S. Senator; Roger Slaughter, who was unable to attend because of the death of his father-in-law, U. S. Senator; former governor, Phil Donnelly, for governor and former mayor of St. Joseph and now a congressman, Phil Welch, for governor.

Harold Barrick presented the names and offices sought by the remaining state officials. He presented: Lt. Gov. James Blair, for re-election; Secretary of State Walter Toberman, for re-election; John M. Dalton, for attorney general; Delton Houchens for attorney general; Sam Watson for attorney general; George H. Bates for treasurer and Harry J. Revercomb for treasurer.

The members of the party who the running for Congress were also presented. They were: Miss Morjorie Bell, John Barnett, Dave Holden, John Woodward, John Hawmer and D. Kelly Scruton, who was absent on a trip to Mexico.

Moving from Broadway and Ohio, the parade went down Third to Main and then back to Third and west on Third to the park.

With the arrival of the parade the picnic was started and from the ample repast the crowd drifted to the bandshell for the program.

It was shortly before the program that Senator Robert S. Kerr arrived, but he was in time for some of the fried chicken and cake—and for many handshakes and questions.

The Oklahoma senator was in his shirt sleeves, his suspenders showing outside his blue shirt. He looked like any other Democrat in the crowd and it was sometime before he was spotted over under a big shade tree enjoying the big plate of food.

It was a jovial, gay, enthusiastic crowd sure of only two things: (1) The weather has been as warm as the campaign and (2) victory in August for personal favorites and in November for the party.

The picnic followed the parade in which sound trucks of Phil Welch, Phil Donnelly and Delton Houchens supplied the music. Other cars carried several of the state candidates and the length was mounted riders from the State Fair Saddle Club.

There were plenty of seats for all to sit while they enjoyed their food—and there were seconds for those who wished to run the gauntlet again.

Steel Strike To Hold

Even If Truman Bows to Congress And Uses T-H Act, Stoppage Continues

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel strike was considered certain today to continue at least another week even if President Truman bowed to the will of Congress and asked a court to order the men back to work.

There was no firm indication, however, how the President would react to yesterday's House request—paralleling a previous one from the Senate—that he use the Taft-Hartley Labor Law to end the crippling, 24-day strike.

The walkout of about 650,000 CIO steelworkers has already cost more than six million tons of steel.

The President had a chance to tip his hand at his weekly news conference today. His last public comment on Taft-Hartley was a curt remark that Congress has no power to force its use. He also said, however, the use of the law always has been under consideration.

The law calls for a board of inquiry, appointed by the President, to look into the issues involved in a dispute and make a report to the White House. Not until that has happened—and customarily it takes at least a week—can the President ask a court to issue an order banning continuation of the strike for 80 days.

The steelworkers union, it was learned, is considering an attack on the steel industry through the same Taft-Hartley Law.

The act makes it an unfair labor practice not to bargain collectively. The act says collective bargaining is conferring "in good faith" over union demands for higher wages and other contract changes. The union questions whether the steel companies have, in fact, bargained in good faith, and gives this reason:

The union was reliably reported to have reached a tentative agreement on a new contract late last week with Bethlehem Steel, second biggest producer. The tentative accord, these reports said, was rejected by others of the six main companies in the dispute when Bethlehem asked for their approval under an agreement that all six would stick together in the long contract fight.

Stickiest obstacle to settlement of the dispute, which started last November, was a union demand for the union shop, under which all employees could be compelled to join the union.

Beyond a statement by Rep. Halleck (R-Ind.) yesterday that the strike would be settled within a week, there was no apparent indication of any union shop compromise. Halleck, refusing to elaborate on his prediction, said it came from the highest sources.

Sacks Over Parking Meters Herald City Appreciation Days

Sacks over the parking meters were a welcome sight to the many shoppers today who drove to town for the many bargains offered by the Sedalia merchants participating in Sedalia Appreciation Days.

The idea of parking as long and where they liked meant a great deal to the women. After all trying on dresses, hats and shoes takes time as well as picking out all the other items for the family and home, and with no parking worry it was wonderful.

The special activities committee of the retail division of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, of which Maurice Hogan is chairman, arranged with Mayor Herb Studer and the City Council to give the shoppers a chance to park free all three days—through Saturday. The C. of C. purchased the paper sacks and put them over the meters and it is park anywhere you want to, free.

But, the Chamber of Commerce didn't stop there. After all, those who have no cars and ride the buses deserve a little consideration, too, and Marvin Howard bus rides downtown this morning from 9 to 12 and will again Friday and Saturday mornings.

The youngsters think Appreciation Days are tops, too, because with purchases from local merchants free swim tickets are being given which are good Thursday, Friday and Saturday for those under 16 years of age.

State police in all western Kentucky barracks were rushed to the scene with arms and ammunition.

Continue Search Near Warsaw for Escapees

Search is still on in the hills and valleys of the Osage River region for two escapees from the Jefferson City prison farm, who, up to this afternoon, had eluded members of the highway patrol and other officers.

The bloodhounds sent for a couple of days ago have been returned to their doghouse at Jefferson City and patrol cars with operators and other searchers, were today "beating the bushes and underbrush" hoping to obtain tangible clues.

Several "hot tops" have been followed, since the hiding spot of the two still at large seemed to be located, but they were successful in keeping in the clear of their pursuers.

One report on Wednesday was that two men had been seen running across a field near the junction of the Grand and Osage Rivers, but it failed to bring about any capture.

Operations Wednesday afternoon and Thursday were centered to the west of Warsaw.

Glenn Sebastian and Harry Jones, captured earlier in the week, are being held awaiting developments and the expected ultimate roundup of their two companions.

Steel Strike Has Cost Workers $235 Millions In Wages Already

Murray's 650,000 Men Are Idle Now For the 25th Day

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The great steel strike of 1952 already has cost Philip Murray's 650,000 idle steelworkers about $235 million dollars in wages.

As the strike goes into its 25th day with little sign of a break there are reports of increasing hardship from all sections of the country.

Layoffs in allied industries are increasing almost hourly.

In addition to the 650,000 striking steelworkers from coast to coast the latest survey shows that 216,320 workers in allied industries either have been laid off or ordered not to report for work after July 3.

The number of workers in allied industries already off the payroll is 166,320.

Heavy layoffs are starting in the auto industry. About 30,000 Michigan auto workers alone face immediate or early layoffs. General Motors has expanded its layoff program to include plants at Saginaw after previously announcing furlough schedules for Flint and Detroit plants.

Ford and Chrysler say they hope to keep production going. The GM layoffs, first in the industry, will extend into the remainder of this week and next week—unless there's a sudden end to the strike.

Some plants are advancing vacation schedules hoping that the strike will be settled in the meantime.

At Cleveland, General Motors Fisher Body Division has laid off 100 workers. It expects to halt production Tuesday, idling 3,200.

From city after city come similar reports of hardship cases among strikers and their families. The powerful steelworkers union does not pay strike benefits although its local leaders have made an effort to aid hard cases.

Some 1,600 strikers in the Canton and Youngstown, O., area where about 43,000 steelworkers are idle, have applied for relief. At Canton, Stark County officials

Russell Calls Anew For More Planes To Help Korean War

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia headed into the windup of his Western stumping tour today after calling anew for more planes to help break the Korean truce stalemate.

He expressed hope—but made no positive claim—that he gained some New Mexico support for the Democratic presidential nomination in a four-hour visit here yesterday.

Discussing the Korean situation, Russell said he long had favored the strategy followed in this week's bombing of North Korean power plants.

"I have wanted us to bomb a Chinese city every night, instead of fighting on land, to make them (the Chinese Reds) withdraw from Korea," he said.

General Will Direct Own Confab Fight

DENVER (AP)—A source in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said today the general will leave Denver for Chicago to direct personally the July convention fight for the GOP presidential nomination.

The source, who refused to be identified, said the decision has now been reached, but he would not say when the general is expected to arrive there.

Meanwhile, Eisenhower's campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, said opinion has made certain his candidate will get the Republican nomination.

Lodge said "the jig is up" for Taft, who he insisted will get less than 500 votes on the first convention ballot, while Eisenhower will get more than 500. A total of 604 votes is needed for nomination.

Eisenhower's nomination will follow, Lodge said, on the second or third ballot.

Taft's campaign manager, David S. Ingalls, said bluntly, "It just isn't so."

Eisenhower will deliver what is billed as a major speech tonight before an expected capacity crowd of 12,000 at the New Stockyards Coliseum. A paid political broadcast, it will be carried on a nationwide radio network at 9:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Lodge, who flew here yesterday to meet with Eisenhower, refused to state where the shift in delegate strength took place, but said his figures were based on a nationwide telephone survey of delegates conducted by Eisenhower leaders. He said the survey did not include states where there are contests between Eisenhower and Taft forces.

Eisenhower is legally entitled to delegate seats.

Asked yesterday to confirm rumors that the general might move to Chicago, Lodge refused comment.

Lodge said, "I came here to tell the general personally of some very important developments . . . I can't tell you what these developments are, but you will know of them soon."

The senator said one indication of Taft's weakening position was the announcement by Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts, a national GOP committeeman, that he supports Eisenhower.

The announcement "had a tremendous influence on other delegates," Lodge said.

Kefauver Declares He Seeks Nomination Without HST Backing

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said he is seeking the Democratic presidential nomination without the endorsement of President Truman.

Speaking on a round-table television discussion last night, the Tennessee senator said his platform, different from that of President Truman, advocates more rights for the states, a balanced budget, emphasizes the cleaning up of crime and the instilling of new determination into government and business.

An advocate of the President's veto of the tidelands bill which would give the states the rights to the oil lands off their coasts, Kefauver said he followed the Supreme Court decision that the United States should have superior rights to the oil property.

Harriman Attacks Taft-Hartley Act

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Averell Harriman, in talks before Oregon Democrats yesterday, attacked the Taft-Hartley Labor Law and said it was "conceived and passed in a spirit of vindictiveness."

He said it would be unfair to steel workers to use it in the present steel strike.

Here to confer with the state's 12 delegates to the party's national convention, the Democratic presidential aspirant spoke at a luncheon meeting and later flew to several other Oregon cities where he made brief talks.

On civil rights he said the federal government should take a strong hand instead of leaving the matter to the states. "We ought to talk more about states' responsibilities than about states' rights," he declared.

Combat Infantryman Badge to Pfc. Ward

WITH THE 7TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN KOREA — Pfc. Grover D. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Ward, 620 North Engineer, Sedalia, recently was awarded the combat infantryman badge for excellent performance of duty in combat with the 7th Infantry Division.

The badge, a symbol of the front line fighting man, distinguishes the combat soldier from rear area and service troops. It consists of a miniature replica of a Revolutionary War flintlock rifle mounted on a blue background and superimposed on a wreath.

A wireman with headquarters and headquarters company, 17th Infantry Regiment, Private Ward entered the army in March, 1951. He arrived in Korea last September and has been awarded the Korean Service Ribbon with two campaign stars.

See Platform For GOP Both Big Men Like

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eugene Millikin of Colorado predicted today Republican platform-drafters will agree on a foreign policy plank satisfactory to both major contenders for the party's presidential nomination.

Millikin, head of the GOP National Platform Committee which will go to work in Chicago next Tuesday, told a reporter he believes the views of all major factions of the party can be hewn into an acceptable plank.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, top contestants for the nomination, have expressed hope there can be such an agreement. But Taft appears much more confident of such a result than Eisenhower.

Striped College Club At Richwine Home

Seventeen members of the Striped College Homemakers Club answered roll call June 20 with "what I would like to do on my vacation."

Mrs. Olive Richwine was hostess with Mrs. S. G. Monsees and Mrs. Wilbur Garrett assisting.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Lewis Montgomery. Mrs. Lester Patrick read the monthly news letter and introduced Eileen Bahner, a member who gave a demonstration.

Mrs. Ernest Biggs and Mrs. Kurman Riley showed some film slides on "Correct Table Settings".

Two guests were present. Mrs. Lewis Montgomery will be hostess on July 18.

Youths Give Program For Flat Creek Club

Members of the Flat Creek Extension Club answered roll call with "What Would I Do With $10 If I Found It In The Road," as Mrs. W. A. Ball was hostess to the 16 members and four guests at her home June 24.

The club will have a picnic July 4th at the C. L. Wadleigh home.

Mrs. J. T. Edmundson and Mrs. Ralph Millburn gave a talk on "Using Crayons on Wood." Zora Snow, Patsy Young and Joyce Snow gave a demonstration and Jeannette Edmundson spoke on her trip to 4-H Camp.

The next meeting will be July 22 at the home of Mrs. R. C. Wiseman.

Guests From California

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith, Sacramento, Calif., sons Jimmy and Melvin, and daughter, Mary Jane, are visiting their relatives and friends in Sedalia. Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dora Lee, will be in Sedalia for the fourth of July after being delayed in their home in Doris, Calif., as their son, Jack, is leaving for the Air Force. The Smiths are now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lane, 514 East Saline. Mr. and Mrs. Smith plan to stay in Missouri for three or four weeks.

The Colorado senator said he has been in touch with John Foster Dulles, named as foreign policy adviser to the group, and expects Dulles to come up with suggestions for subcommittee consideration.

There are some obvious differences between Taft and Eisenhower on foreign policy and the general has been at some pains recently to point them out.

For instance, he criticized what he called "lip service" or "be-grudging approval" of a program of collective security. Without naming Taft, the general has repeatedly struck out at "isolationists" and "false prophets of stay at home" in the GOP camp.

Taft has said the difference between him and the general is one of emphasis, not principle, adding that Eisenhower gives European aid a higher priority than he does.

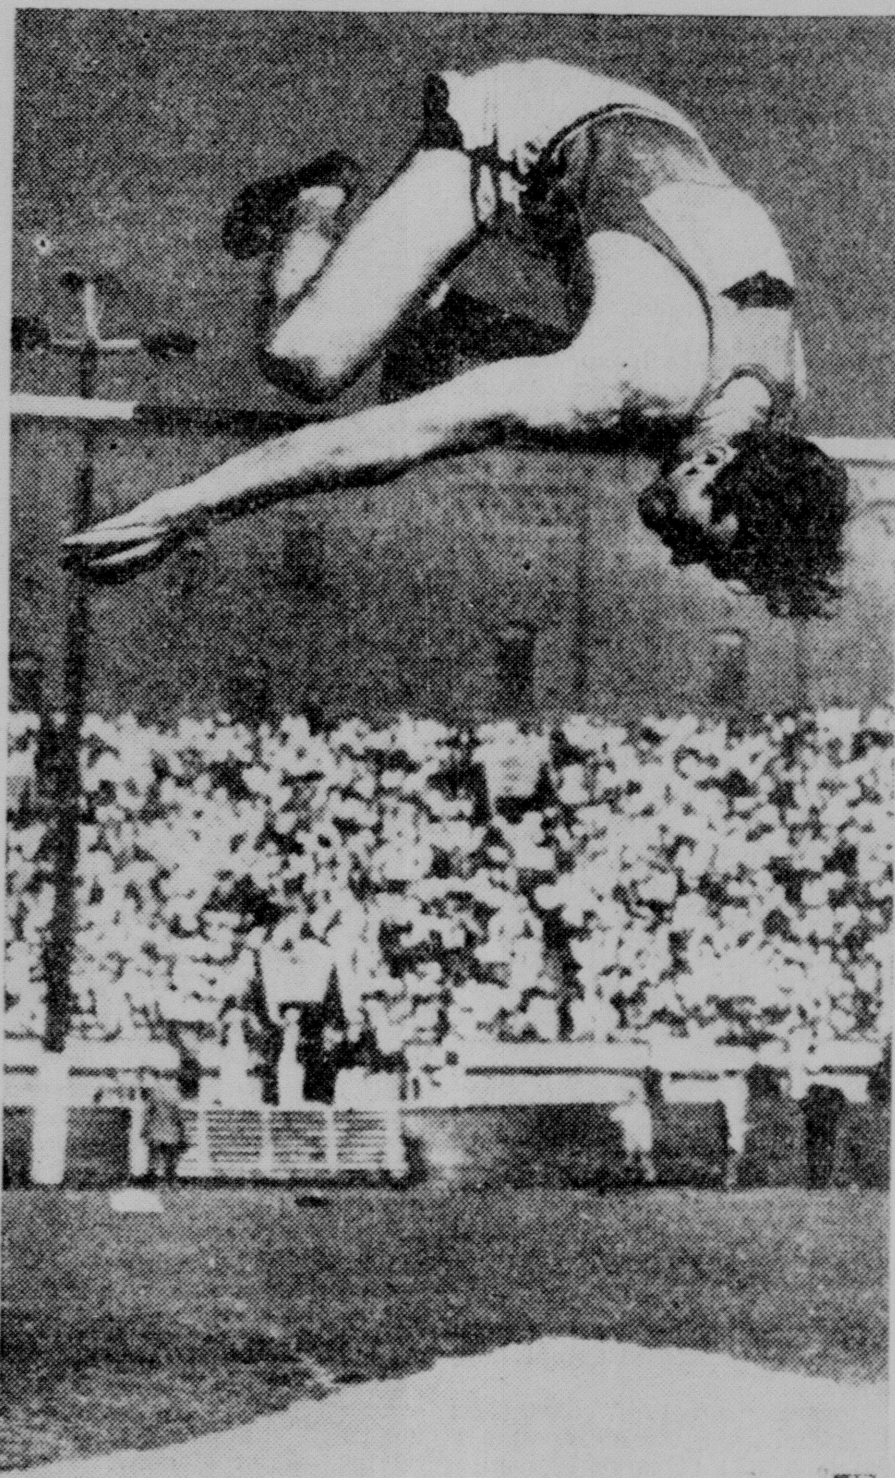

As senior Republican member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin got into the argument yesterday by submitting his views on a foreign policy plank to Millikin.

Wiley seemed to be siding with Eisenhower when he told the Senate "the phony remedy of airpower alone" won't prevent Russian aggression.

Mrs. Johnson Recent Bride In Kansas City

In a ceremony witnessed only by relatives and close friends, Mrs. Mable Harris Johnson became the bride of Mr. Donald S. McCandless Jr., at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 15, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Atkinson, 9817 Kemper Road, Kansas City.

The double ring ceremony was read before a fireplace banked with palms, gladioli, daisies, huckleberry and burning white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frank Harris of Windsor. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sisson McCandless, Oak Park, Ill.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Harry Jenks at the piano played Cadman's "At Dawning" and "I Love Thee" by Grieg.

Miss Iris Atkinson sang "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Because," accompanied by Mr. Jenks.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered wearing a street length dress of blue organza with a band of daisies in her hair. She carried a colonial bouquet of daisies and white roses.

Mrs. Lowell Atkinson was her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a dress of flowered organza over pink. She had a nosegay of daisies in her hair and carried a bouquet of blue daisies and yellow roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Herbert Landsell Jr., Oak Park, Ill.

Mrs. Harris, mother of the bride, was attired in a pale green velvet dress with a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. McCandless wore a shantung dress of Dior blue accented by a corsage of pink carnations.

Approximately 125 guests attended the reception which was held immediately following the ceremony.

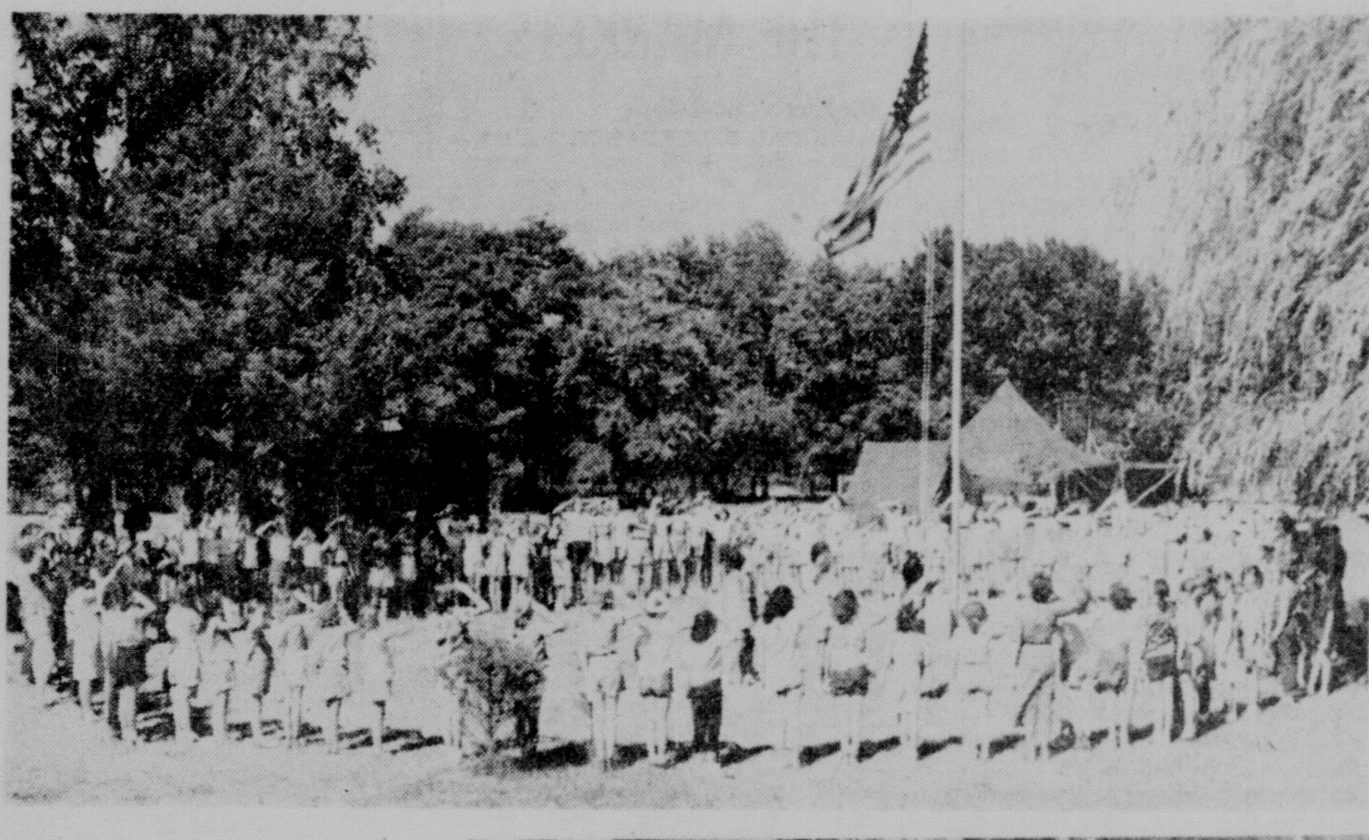

The couple left for a trip to Colorado. They will be at home after July 1 at 2816 Swift Avenue, North Kansas City, Mo.

Can America Escape Socialism?

Some nations couldn't. And there are people in this country who are trying to push America down the same road.

They don't speak out for socialism openly—they know most Americans don't want it. Instead, they give persuasive reasons for the steps that lead to Socialism.

There's one clue that will help you recognize this hidden socialism. It's the old line: "Let the federal government do it... or run it... or take it over... or own and operate it."

When you hear that, look out! The more things the federal government runs, the closer we are to socialism, whether we want it or not, and the fewer rights and freedoms we have left for ourselves.

AN IMPORTANT STEP TOWARD SOCIALISM is to have the federal government take over electric power, the key to U. S. production strength. The late Carl D. Thompson, former Manager of the Information Bureau in the National Office of the Socialist Party and Secretary of the National Public Ownership League, had this to say on the subject:

"... the movement for public super-power becomes the most vital phase of the public ownership movement. The control of electric power... will obviously carry with it the control... of transportation, of mining and agriculture... it will also dominate and determine very largely the domestic life of the people..."

Most Americans believe that our government should not compete with its citizens in any private business.

AMERICA CAN ESCAPE SOCIALISM and here's how you can help: Recognize the steps that lead to socialism. Help your friends and neighbors to see the danger. Understand your rights and obligations as an American citizen... and act accordingly.

Collapse In 103 Degree Heat May Have Ended Sugar Ray's Career

He Was Winning Over Maxim Until End of 13th Round

NEW YORK (AP)—The glorious ring career of Sugar Ray Robinson may have come to an end in the blast furnace heat of Yankee Stadium—just two rounds away from victory over Light Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim and a third jewel for his gleaming crown.

Steaming 103-degree heat melted the taut flesh off the lean middle-weight king and burned out his resistance after 12 rounds of a valiant, winning effort. He collapsed and the victory went to Maxim.

"Ray was going to call it quits if he won decisively," said Jimmy Clark, a longtime friend of Ray.

Senators Get Going Good, Won't Be Last

By RALPH RODEN
AP Sports Writer

"We won't finish last."

That's what Bucky Harris, genial manager of the Washington Senators stated firmly in February.

"I don't know where we'll finish. We'll win more games than we did last year and we won't finish last," he said.

Washington fans weren't exactly jumping up and down over the Senators' outlook for 1952. There were too many holes to plug.

But Harris, by astute manipulations in the trade marts, has more than kept his word. The Senators are a country mile from last place and are threatening to plunge into the American League pennant race.

Victors in only 62 games last year, the Senators scored their 32nd triumph yesterday, outlasting the cooled-off Chicago White Sox, 9-6, in 10 innings.

Washington's contingent of former New York Yankees figured prominently in the triumph which enabled the Senators to sweep a three-game series from their former tormentors. Before the series Chicago had won six out of seven from the rising Nats.

Jensen Homers

Jackie Jensen boomed a two-run homer to run hit hitting streak to 11 games while Tom Ferriek picked up the win in relief with the help of Don Johnson. The Senators scored four runs in the 10th with the help of three walks off Marv Grissom and an error by Chico Carrasquel.

The victory enabled the Senators to take over fourth place from the White Sox by three percentage points and move to within four games of the league-leading New York Yankees, who dropped a 10-9 decision to the Browns in St. Louis.

Browns Whip Yanks

Rookie outfielder Bob Neiman broke up the game, played in 100-degree heat, with a two-out homer in the eighth inning off Bobby Hogue. The teams collected 28 hits and committed seven errors, five by the Browns.

Gene Bearden, who took over in the fourth was the winner but he needed help from the amazing Satchel Paige. Paige was called from his special canopied cushioned chair in the bullpen in the ninth after pinch-hitter Johnny Sain had worked the count to 3-0. Paige struck out Sain and retired the side.

Yank Lead Sliced

The loss cut the Yanks' lead to 2½ games over the Boston Red Sox, who moved into the runner-up slot by trouncing the Detroit Tigers,

"Now this could be it too, I guess." Robinson had been bidding to become the third fighter ever to win three championships and join Ruby Bob Fitzsimmons and Hammerin' Henry Armstrong in the ultra-elite of the ring.

There was many an expert who felt that he had seen the last of the great Sugar Man.

The bout will go down in the books as a 14th round technical knockout for Joey—the bell had sounded to start the 14th—but everyone in the wilted crowd of 47,983 (gross gate $421,696) will credit the TKO to the steambox that was Yankee Stadium last night.

Ray wouldn't and couldn't talk to the press after he was helped to his dressing room. He had just suffered the first knockout—technical though it was—of his 11½ years of pro boxing. It was only his third defeat in 137 bouts, but two of them have come in less than a year. He lost to Randy Turpin last July 10.

"Robinson is mentally as well as physically exhausted," said Dr. Ira McCown, State Athletic Commission physician and one of the first to leave Sugar Ray's dressing room. "He's speaking unintelligibly. He appears to be out in left field."

The middleweight champion, who started out weighing 157½, to Maxim's 172, left the ball park with his bathrobe wrapped around him.

Through the first 11 rounds, Ray, as graceful as a ballet dancer, moved in and out and sideways on his taller foe. He shot jabs to the head and body, rattled him with flashing combinations to the head and body, and staggered him with the seventh and ninth rounds with crushing left hooks.

The best Maxim could do on his darting rival was to dig those shorties to the body in the clinches. He landed occasional left hooks to the head and a rare right without much steam.

In the 12th, two rounds after Referee Ruby Goldstein became ill from the oppressive heat and was replaced by Ray Miller, Robinson appeared to wobble as he retreated from Maxim, now the stalker.

Suddenly the heat, the 15½ pounds weight handicap and everything else caught up with the sleek, poised Harlequin near the end of the 13th.

He let fly with a haymaker right that missed by a mile and fell flat on his face from exhaustion. As the round-ending gong sounded, he collapsed against the ropes in a neutral corner, his handlers quickly dragged him to his stool.

10-3 while Cleveland's erstwhile second-place Indians bowed to the Philadelphia Athletics, 11-9.

Brooklyn Takes Cards

Brooklyn maintained its four-game National League advantage over New York, beating the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1, while the Giants edged the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2.

Carl Erskine, making his first start since his no-hitter against Chicago, went all the way and allowed eight hits to boost his record to 7-1. Gerry Staley permitted the Dodgers only four safeties but one was a three-run homer in the fourth inning by Roy Campanella.

Jim Turnesa Says Winning PGA Is Tough

LOUISVILLE (AP)—For Jim Turnesa, the first victory was the hardest.

That's easy to say today after watching the swarthy, tight-lipped little man fight his way back from what looked like a certain defeat to whip Chick Harbert, 1 up on the 36th hole of the Big Springs Course to win the PGA Championship.

It was the first major title ever taken by a professional member of the famous Turnesa golfing clan.

But Jimmy said it himself even before he went out to meet Harbert, a golfer who adds into the tough spots and usually comes out ahead with the big punch.

Comparing this trip to the finals this year to that of 10 years ago, when he whipped Dutch Harrison, Jug McSpaden, Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson in successive matches, only to bow to Sam Snead in the final, Turnesa insisted this one was harder.

"I was ahead of those guys," he said unsmilingly. "This time every match has been tough. Ted Kroll (semifinal loser) never let up on me. Every time I thought I had him, he'd come right back at me. If I hadn't played Clarence Doser the day before, I probably would have lost to Kroll. Doser played the same way."

Turnesa, third member of his family to act the PGA final, must have learned something from those matches. Harbert knocked him down at the very first hole. After the first 18 he was three down. Then, like his earlier rivals, he "came back" at his rival.

While the wild-shooting Harbert became wilder as the tension increased, little Jim stoodied, improved his long iron shots, which had been erratic, and began sinking the "pressure" putts.

At the 27th he had cut Harbert's margin to one hole—for the second time. At the 32nd he drew even, ramming in an eight-foot putt for a birdie. But he never was ahead until the 36th.

There Harbert, who belted 13 drives into the rough during the afternoon round, got into his worst position. His ball landed under a small evergreen and Chick had to crawl beneath the branches to chip it out to the fairway. That wasted stroke cost him the title and the difference between $3,500 first prize and the loser's share, $1,500.

Turnesa calmly hit up the middle for his par 4. Chick reached the edge of the green in 3, but couldn't make a long one drop and that was all.

Sal Yvars from third base with two out in the eighth inning to break a 2-2 tie and give the Giants the nod over Cincinnati.

Big Max Surkont and Sid Gordon teamed up to lead the Boston Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Chicago Cubs snapped their nine-game losing streak by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1.

Sports Roundup—Whitfield, US Highest Scorer In Last Olympics, Tries Again

LOS ANGELES (AP)—High scorer among track men in the 1948 Olympics in London was Mal Whitfield of the United States. He won the 800, was third in the 400, and anchored the winning 1,600-meter relay team.

High scorer in the 1952 Helsinki games will probably also be Whitfield. Now he wants three gold medals.

"I'm more serious this time," he says. "I'm more experienced too. I'm in the best shape of my life."

Whitfield is 27, stands a little over 6 feet, weighs 165, is a sergeant in the Air Force on leave (after having seen action in Korea) and is a tough competitor.

Whitfield showed his class in the AAU Championships last week when he trounced George Rhoden, the world record holder, in 46.4 for 400 meters. The track was not very fast, either.

"Are you afraid of Rhoden or Ralph Wint?"

"Who me—afraid? I like competition."

Wint is a Jamaican like Rhoden, and phenomenally tall. He won the 400 meters at London, was second in the 800. Until Whitfield showed up in such superb shape, American experts were willing to concede the 400 to Rhoden, and held little hope in the 800 against Wint. Now the picture is different.

Whitfield is probably the most stylist of modern middle distance runners. His stride of over nine feet is smooth, his arm action is regular. Even in as fast a race as the 400, he has a way of suddenly putting on more speed that looks for all the world like a great 16-cylinder car moving ahead of a jalopy.

Whitfield tries for a place in the final 800 trials Friday and the duel with John Barnes, the Occidental flash, will be something to see. Barnes did 1:49.6 in the NCAA 800. Saturday Whitfield will go for a spot in the 400. Here big Olie Matson will probably be his chief foe. In both races he must finish in the first three to make the Olympic team in those events.

Jayhawks Edge Pros In First Olympic Warm-up Cage Tilt

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—The Kansas Jayhawks, NCAA champions, edged the Peoria, Ill. Caterpillar Diesels, U. S. Olympic titlists, 60-57, in the first of their 4-game warmup basketball series for the Olympics last night.

The teams each supplies five members of the U. S. Olympic squad. They meet here again Friday and Saturday at Peoria July 1.

Other team members are Bob Kurland and Wayne Glasgow of the Phillips "66" Oilers.

RESOLUTION NO. 94

A RESOLUTION declaring it necessary to bring to the established grade all that part of East Seventh Street for the purpose of constructing and to construct a concrete curb and gutter on both sides of East Seventh Street from the east line of Emmett Avenue, thence east to the west line of Babcock Avenue, all public streets within the City of Sedalia, Missouri.

The Council of the City of Sedalia, Missouri, finds, deems and declares it to be necessary to bring to the established grade all that part of East Seventh Street from the east line of Emmett Avenue, thence east to the west line of Babcock Avenue, all public streets within the said City of Sedalia, according to the plans and specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer of said City, and to be on file with the City Clerk of said City on or before the 7th day of July, 1952.

SECTION 2. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the curbing and guttering herein provided for shall include all curbs and gutters and all returns of said curb and gutter at all intersections of streets and alleys, if any.

SECTION 3. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Engineer of said City of Sedalia shall prepare plans and specifications for said work and improvement together with an estimate of the cost thereof, and shall file the same with the City Clerk of said City of Sedalia on or before the 7th day of July, 1952.

SECTION 4. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the cost of said improvement shall be paid by special assessment against the lots and lands fronting or abutting on either side of said part of East Seventh Street, a public street within said City as aforesaid, to be so improved and on said improvements being completed, special tax bills shall be issued against said lots and lands chargeable with the cost of said improvement, and that the cost of bringing said part of said East Seventh Street to the established grade and curbing and guttering all that part of said East Seventh Street in the City of Sedalia, in manner and form as hereinbefore set forth.

SECTION 5. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution be published for seven (7) consecutive insertions in the Sedalia Democrat-Capital, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in said City of Sedalia, Missouri.

PASSED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEDALIA, MISSOURI, on this 19th day of May, 1952.

Nieman's Homer Spells Brownie Win Over Yanks

By The Associated Press

Bob Nieman, the fellow who started out to be a sports writer and ended up a big league baseball player, was the man of the hour around the St. Louis Browns' camp today.

It was Mr. Nieman who was the deciding factor in the Browns' 10-to-9 victory over the towering New York Yankees in Sportsman's Park at St. Louis Wednesday.

Nieman drove in the tying run in the sixth inning with a double and then in the eighth, with two out, delivered the winning run with a homer into the left field bleachers.

Satch Again Saves It

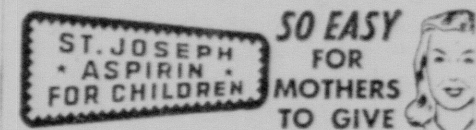

Pitchers beat a steady path to the showers during the slugfest, which produced 16 hits for the Browns and 12 for the Yanks. And again it was that tireless Satch Paige who shuffled out to the rescue of the Browns in the ninth. Pitcher Gene Bearden was in trouble with pinch hitter Johnny Sain. The count was three balls, no strikes when O'P Satch took over and proceeded to fan Mr. Sain on three pitches.

But Cardinals Lose

Carl Erskine is fast becoming an enigma for the St. Louis Cardinals. The 25-year-old Brooklyn rightlander marked up his fifth triumph in a row over the Redbirds at Brooklyn Wednesday with a 3 to 1 decision. Carl racked up four of the victories against the Redbirds at the tag-end of last season.

The only offensive action Erskine needed was supplied by catcher Roy Campanella, who

Death in the Sierras

By Doris Hudson Moss

DAVID began speaking with tremendous calm and decisiveness. "To any of you who do not know Sam, I will introduce Sam Burdick. Sam surely saved Mrs. Ordell's life by carrying her from her tent to this cave and by attending to her wound, feeding her and watching out for her generally. I depended upon Sam to do just that or I'm afraid that Mr. James could not have succeeded in hurrying us back to the lodge after we found her stabbed. I protested this action, of course, because I wished to care for her myself and to make other examinations of the tent and so on. But I knew Sam would do what could be done."

"You said she was dead," interrupted Miss Hansen accusingly. "What kind of doctor are you?" "That is a strange question to come from a nurse to her chief but you are really quite right in asking. I knew that Mrs. Ordell was not dead, only unconscious from a brain concussion and suffering from loss of blood from a surface wound that ran at a slanting angle beneath her arm. It served the purposes of justice better for everyone to believe she was dead. She had bled profusely, but not a dangerous amount and I hoped the wound would be reasonably free from infection. The blood had coagulated nicely."

"I noticed that and believed it to be because of death," said the nurse. "Quite understandable. I knew, of course, that Sam would care for her, and so was willing to leave her in his hands. The wound proved to me just one of three things. The person who stabbed her did not do a thorough job because Mrs. Ordell may have jumped away, because whoever did it disliked the job and did not put the proper strength behind the scissors."

"And," broke in the professor, "since you are so very clever, what reason did you have for believing that this—Burdick here would play the good Samaritan?"

"He was standing near the stream as we went into your wife's tent when we found that she had been stabbed. He knows the forest creature's trick of standing perfectly still to avoid being seen. I would not have noticed him probably but Susie growled and looked toward him. Miss Curtis had the dog leashed or she would have gone for you, Sam. I was sure he'd come into the tent to see what had happened and would take care of her. I even thought he might remove her to his cave where he could properly care for the wound without interruption."

SUDDENLY David whirled and confronted the strange woman who sat by Duncan. "Mrs. Brownlee, was it you who struck Professor Ordell over the head in the lodge yesterday morning?"

"Why—no—I—" "How long have you been here?" "Why, only since this morning."

"Will you please explain the dried mountain clay on the shoes that are in your suitcase?" "Certainly, Tahoe mud. I was there for several days."

"How did you reach Gold Lodge?" "I hitch-hiked as far as the Bucking Horse and walked the rest of the way."

"What is your business here?" "I wanted a job at the lodge."

"So you came to the lodge, asked for James and then struck the professor over the head?" "No, I didn't. As I was leaving the lodge after the professor, as you call him, told me James was in the kitchen, a man jumped out from behind the upright piano and hit the professor. I ran like anything because I didn't want to get mixed up in any trouble."

David smiled slightly. "Then how do you explain this paper that was in your suitcase?" He reached in his wallet and brought out the account of the tangled clues recorded by Professor Ordell up to the time of our late luncheon yesterday. One corner of the paper was missing and David supplied the missing paper which bore, I well remembered, the word "Elsie."

could easily have been prevented. Boner No. 1—Was Ike's statement endorsing MacArthur at his Abilene press conference. This automatically destroyed Eisenhower's bargaining power when Taft forces proposed MacArthur as keynote speaker.

Eisenhower representatives were thunderstruck at the idea of having Ike's bitter army critic as keynote speaker. But since their chief had referred to MacArthur so glowingly at Abilene, the ground was cut out from under them in voicing much opposition to MacArthur at Chicago.

Boner No. 2—Was Eisenhower's statement in Dallas that he would lead no third party. While it was undoubtedly true that Ike intends to lead no third party, nevertheless his chief bargaining power in forcing Taft leaders to seat his delegates is the threat of a third party.

Yet Ike threw that threat away. Had William Howard Taft, father of the senator, known that Teddy Roosevelt would form the Bull Moose party as an aftermath of the Chicago convention of 1912, Teddy would have had more delegates seated in that convention.

Today, Bob Taft knows from his father's experience, that he cannot afford a third party movement. The threat of such a movement brings heart failure to his cohorts.

Eisenhower's leaders, knowing this, had been dropping hints of a third party walkout. "Whereupon their chief, General Ike, chuckled this bargaining power out the window."

Franklin Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge, and Harry Truman, all master political strategists, never would have been caught making an error like this.

Another Russian Attack? The Air Force fears that the B-29 that crashed into the Japanese Sea a week ago may have been shot down by the Russians.

Inside story is that the plane was on a weather reconnaissance mission along the Siberian coast. No radio report was received that it was in trouble. It just mysteriously disappeared. It may have flown too near the Siberian coast to suit the Russians, and yet fighters may have caught it by surprise as they did the Swedish plane over the Baltic.

The World Today-- Facts About Big Conventions

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are the answers to a couple of questions about the political conventions, held this year in Chicago. The Republicans open their July 7. The Democrats follow July 21.

1. Why do the Democrats hold their convention after the Republicans finish theirs? Answer: Just habit. There's no rule. But it's been happening that way, with two exceptions, for almost 100 years.

2. Why do the parties pick the same city the last three times. But most of their conventions before 1940 were held in different cities. From now on, though, they'll probably always meet in the same city and the same convention hall. This is why:

The expense and problems involved in the news, radio and TV coverage are becoming so huge and complex it's best all around to meet in the same place.

The two Chicago conventions this year will be in the same hall. The Democrats and Republicans worked hand-in-glove making the arrangements.

It's saved them time, money and trouble. After the convention they can return to their usual occupation them entirely on the basis of merit. Politics are completely out. The board is looking over the entire field, and may even select candidates outside civil service, if the candidates already in internal revenue aren't adequate.

Washington Pipeline Bill Pawley, close friend of the late Bob Hannegan, and rewarded with an ambassadorship by President Truman, is working secretly for Eisenhower, while still serving as ambassador. . . . Governor Pine of Pennsylvania is raising the bidding every time he confers with Taft or Ike. Soon he'll be offered the vice presidency in return for those elusive unpledged Pennsylvania delegates.

Though he hasn't been wooed as wantonly as Fine, California's governor Earl Warren remains the real key to the GOP convention. If either Taft or Ike can get him to come over, they may be the next president of the United States. . . . Warren won't woo easily. If the convention deadlocks, he could be President of the United States.

Flooding a General Ever since the expose of waste in the building of air base facilities in North Africa, congressional leaders have been keeping a close tab on air force construction. Recently, Major General Colby Myers, Air Force construction boss, was being grilled by a House appropriations committee on new installations in the U. S.

Question after question was fired at Myers by Congressman John Ried of South Carolina and others. General Myers, endeavoring to answer several tough ones, reflectively leaned back in his chair. Suddenly the chair fell over backwards. He landed in a heap on the floor.

Have the record show? Congressman Riley, dryly instructed a committee clerk, "That the general was floored by a question."

Odds and Ends By News Staff

There was a small fire in the neighborhood when a woman who works downtown started out to get the bus and she was told she would have to go to another corner to catch the bus, it couldn't come that way because of the fire hose.

About that time she saw a car exactly like one owned by a boy who works in the office where she works.

She yelled at the car and the fireman said, "He can't come this way either."

The man driving the car stopped and she saw it was not the boy at the office. Then she was embarrassed.

"That's all right," said the man, "My car is like Bill's and I am going to town so I would be glad to take you down."

The woman got in with the strange man and rode to town. Just as he let her out a man with whom she had worked for years stepped off the curb. He hadn't seen her for a long, long time and they were very happy to see each other, in fact her former co-worker just grabbed her and kissed her—the other man drove on and the woman is ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Pointed story: A truck driver stopped at a downtown street corner to ask directions.

No Shorts In City Hall Despite Heat

CLEVELAND (AP)—The gal workers at Cleveland City Hall are not going to wear shorts, regardless of the sizzling weather. Mayor Thomas A. Burke so ruled yesterday after some of the girls had requested permission when thermometers bobbed to a bake-over 99.

Joan Davis' Daughter Elopes With a Fireman

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Beverly Hills, 18-year-old daughter of comedienne Joan Davis, eloped to Carson City, Nev., last Sunday and married a fireman.

Miss Davis didn't learn about it until the newlyweds returned here yesterday. Her comment: "At 18, kids sure do think they know everything."

The bridegroom is Lee Bamber, 25, of the Pasadena, Calif., fire department.

Looking Backward

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Deputy Sheriff W. R. Dillard, in making a roundup of the county jail late Saturday, was locked in by two prisoners who made their escape, but were captured within a few hours. One was accused of violation of the dry laws and the other of shoplifting.

Bishop W. F. McMurry, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday dedicated the new Methodist wondering what he thought. First she rides with a perfectly strange man and then the first man she meets after she gets out kisses her.

A mother who has always felt that her first duty was to her little son and has always been at home when he came home from school or any place he might have been, found one day that she couldn't get home from where she was going as soon as he would get home from school. So she tried to think of all the "don'ts" to tell him. Come straight home from school and stay in the house, she said, don't play with matches, don't do this and don't do that and she went through quite a long list of don'ts.

The child, always obedient, did as he was told. He went right straight home and stayed in the house. He didn't touch the matches or do one thing that he was told not to do—but there was a whole package of dried apricots and she didn't say not to eat a whole package of apricots, so that was what he did.

The more he ate apricots, the thirstier he got and the more water he drank. He would eat apricots and then would drink water, then he would eat more apricots and then drink more water.

That night mommie had the sickest little boy in town.

"Dear, dear," said the devoted mother, "Why do you suppose that God gives so much mother love when he sends a baby—and so little wisdom?"—H. L.

John Stanton didn't even aim at the chicken he killed the other day and he didn't believe his gun would kill a chicken anyway—but it did.

Using his son's BB gun while the lad was gone, he fired away. The BB hit a telephone wire, careened off to hit and kill the three-quarter pound chick.

$1,000 Cash Award Promised Champs Of State Tourney

Thirty-two Semi-Pro Baseball Teams
Will Participate In Event Here In July

Hank Williams, state commissioner of semi-pro baseball in Missouri, has announced the rules and regulations, as well as the awards for the Missouri State Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament, which will be played July 18-27 at Liberty Park here.

From a 32-team bracket will emerge the winning team which will represent the state in the National Championship Tournament in Wichita, Kan. The Missouri champs will receive a $1,000 cash award, or 25 percent of the gross receipts (whichever is greater).

Second place team is to receive 12 1/2 percent of the gross receipts, third place five per cent and fourth place 2 1/2 percent.

Trophies will be awarded these four top clubs and trophies will also go to the best dressed club, leading hitter, leading pitcher and the team sportsmanship award winner.

A double elimination play will be carried out. Meaning a team will have to lose twice before being out of the play — except for qualifying games, which are "sudden death."

A majority of the games will be played at night, except on week-

New Chemical Tried on Mile Track at Fair

Science is finally coming to the aid of the poor dust-plagued auto race driver.

State Fair Secretary Rollo E. Singleton disclosed today that a new chemical—dustop—is being tested on the fairgrounds one-mile track for its dust laying qualities.

If it proves out, Singleton added, the compound will be used for the 100-mile new car race scheduled for the big fairgrounds oval Friday afternoon, July 4.

He said a 55-gallon shipment of the chemical has arrived from the Philadelphia laboratories where it was developed for the experiments to be made here by Floyd MacFarland, veteran State Fair grounds superintendent.

The Sedalia tests will be the first made on any mid-western race track, but Singleton reports that several Eastern courses have used the new substance with outstanding results.

The chemical was first developed for the coal mining industry, where it is now widely used as a dust preventative in underground coal mining operations.

Junior Legion Plays SAFB Here Tonight

The Post 16 Junior Legion team will play the Sedalia Air Force Base tonight at Liberty Park at 8 o'clock.

Manager Richards has not announced his starting line-up for the Legion.

All Legion players are asked to be at the park at 6:30 p.m. No admission will be charged to the game, but a free will offering will be taken.

Teenettes Win 30-20 Over Tipton Catholics

The Sacred Heart Teenettes softball team defeated the Tipton Catholic girls, 30-20, last night at Tipton. Jo White was the winning pitcher with Pat Mulcahey working behind the plate.

The Teenettes will play the Tipton team Monday at the Center Park diamond at 8 p.m.

Browns-Yanks Series Produces 82 Hits, 54 Runs In 3 Games

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Some folks claim that how they can squint into the sun, note the prevailing winds in center field and predict a "hitter's day." But here's a sure-fire standard that's easier on the eyes:

Just compare the day's conditions with those of June 23, 24 and 25, 1952, in St. Louis. Those, my boy, were hitter's days cum laude.

The free-swinging New York Yankees and the muscle men of the St. Louis Browns really had a time in the three-game series just ended. Sportsman's Park still echoes with the crack of bats.

In all there were 82 hits recorded, with an even split of 41-41 for the world champs and the Browns. Twenty-one of those safeties went for extra bases and helped account for a grand total of 54 runs.

The Yanks, battling off challengers for the No. 1 spot in the American League pennant race, won the series two games to one. They claimed the first two, 14-10 and 8-3, and then dropped the final, 10-9.

Both of the first two games were played under the lights with temperatures ranging in the 90's.

Yesterday, in a day game, the clubs jostled each other in an official 100 degrees.

Hitter's day? No doubt about it. Who else had a chance?

The pitchers — there were 21 used in the series — never came close to being effective. Only Allie Reynolds, from the sun-baked plains of Oklahoma, went the distance and he gave up nine hits in the process.

And the fielders wilted, too. They ran up a total of 16 errors, divided equally between the two clubs, to give up 12 unearned runs.

Even the managers didn't have a chance for success. Using their strategy books, old Casey Stengel and Marty Marion sent a total of eight pinch-hitters to the plate.

Only one came through with a hit, a single, and only two others reached base, both on errors.

So forget about squinting at the sun until the next eclipse. Just circle the dates June 23-25, inclusive, 1952. Those, my boy, were hitter's days.

SAFB Defeats T&C, 8 to 7, In 13 Frames

Miller, the Town and Country team hurler, fanned 21 SAFB players last night and collected a double as one of his team's nine hits, yet lost the 13-inning affair at Liberty Park by a score of 7 to 8.

Early game errors by the T. and C. accounted for the loss in the game that was billed as the first of a two night doubleheader. Tonight's game between the squads has been cancelled, however, since several T. and C. players cannot be on hand.

Scoring one in each the first, third, fourth and fifth frames the Airmen took the lead away from T. and C., which had put across one in the top of the first. Then the Sedalians added one more in the sixth and a pair in the eighth to knot the count and it went that way into extra innings.

In the top of the 12th, T. and C. sent three men home on a walk, two singles and an error, but the SAFB tied it again in the 12th with three scores on three hits and two errors.

The winning run came in the last of the 13th on three hits and a walk.

Local Drivers Win Riverside Stock Car Races

Mae McGuire of Springfield won the main event Tuesday night at the CMRA Riverside Stadium in his modified stock car. Three of the local boys placed in the money: Herb Thompson of Holden placing second, Jewel Kidwell of Sedalia, driving Vint Siegel's car, placing third, and Jack Lemmons of Marshall placing fourth.

Some 4,000 fans from Kansas City saw one of their favorite drivers, Halsey, completely destroy his car after going off the track and then turning over, hitting a wall. Halsey was slightly injured as he received a cut over the left eye and a sprained right hand.

In the heat races, Herb Thompson and Wilber Crane took first places and Henry Powell and Charles Emmerson took seconds.

In the consolation races, Mae McGuire made away with his second first place as he was followed by Don Bunch, second, Roy Clark, third, and Jewell Kidwell, fourth. Sunday the CMRA will hold its races on the Sedalia track at 1 p.m. and later on, after the lights are put up, races will be held on Saturday nights.

The Redbirds of the Little League Western division moved out in standings with a two wins and no losses as they defeated the Indians 16 to 13 Wednesday night at the Housel Park diamond. In the first game the Yanks trounced the Giants 15 to 5 behind the four hit pitching of Gay and Wilson. Guibault was the winner in the second game, allowing but four hits.

Bay was the winner in the opener. Wertz was the Yank's big man last night as he connected for three hits in as many trips to the plate and he also scored two runs.

Albertson was the Giants' big gun as he hit two for two.

The Redbirds, in winning their game, collected but five hits in scoring 16 runs. Jones and D. Christian both got hits to lead the Redbirds' hitting attack.

Barbour Playing With Anderson, S. C., Rebels

Carl Barbour, Sedalia, who was catcher for the Missouri University Tiger baseball team this season and who was recently signed to a contract by the St. Louis Browns, has been assigned to the Anderson, S. C., Rebels.

Barbour is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Barbour, 1815 South Grand. He played with the Tigers as they won the Big 7 conference title and went on to second place in the NCAA tournament.

Schlitz Leaders Win Wednesday, Play Friday Nite

The Schlitz Leaders will play host to the Central Missouri Softball League leading Sweet Springs Chamber of Commerce team at the Center Park Friday night.

The leaders are now in a second place tie with the Marshall K. of C. and a win over Sweet Springs would throw the league into a three-way tie for top honors.

Sweet Springs will use either Baker or Lange on the mound while the Leaders will have a pick from four good hurlers in Sanders, Branson, Belsha and Elwell.

Chuck Branson pitched the Leaders to a 11-5 victory over the Mid-State Printers at Jefferson City Tuesday night. Branson gave up only two hits but wildness enabled the Printers to do their scoring. The Leaders collected ten hits off the offerings of Nelget of the Printers. C. Weller led the attack for the Sedalians, getting three for four followed by his teammates L. Alderman, with two for three, and C. Logan with two for four. Alderman hit a home run in the second.

Batteries were: for Mid-State, Hilbert and Brandt; for Sedalia, Branson and Swisher.

Sunday night at the Center Park the Leaders will face the Marriot Reed Coalers from Columbia.

Blues Win Late For 8th Victory In New String

By The Associated Press
League-pacing Kansas City and second-place Milwaukee each won with ninth-inning rallies Wednesday night to remain 1 1/2 games apart in the American Association race.

Luis Marquez slammed a three-run homer to climax a four-run final frame that gave the Brewers an 8-7 edge over St. Paul.

The Saints' manager, Clay Bryant, filed a protest of the game, arguing that Marquez's hit had gone through an advertising sign in left center and not over it. He maintained it should have been a ground rule double.

Kansas City stretched its winning streak to eight games with a run in the last of the ninth to nip Minneapolis 7-6. The Millers had scored twice in the top of the ninth, after racing to a 4-0 lead through the fifth on Norm Fox's no-hit pitching. Fox collapsed in the sixth and the Blues tied the score with the help of a two-run homer by newcomer Fenton Mole.

Kal Segrist singled in the decisive run for the Blues.

Charleston shaded Louisville, 9-7 in 12 innings on Fred Taylor's three-run homer, his first circuit smash of the season.

Indianapolis regained sixth place by sweeping a doubleheader from Columbus, 7-1 and 11-7.

Inside the Democratic Party: Here's How Presidential Candidates Add Up

By JOHN GUNTHER
Written for NEA Service

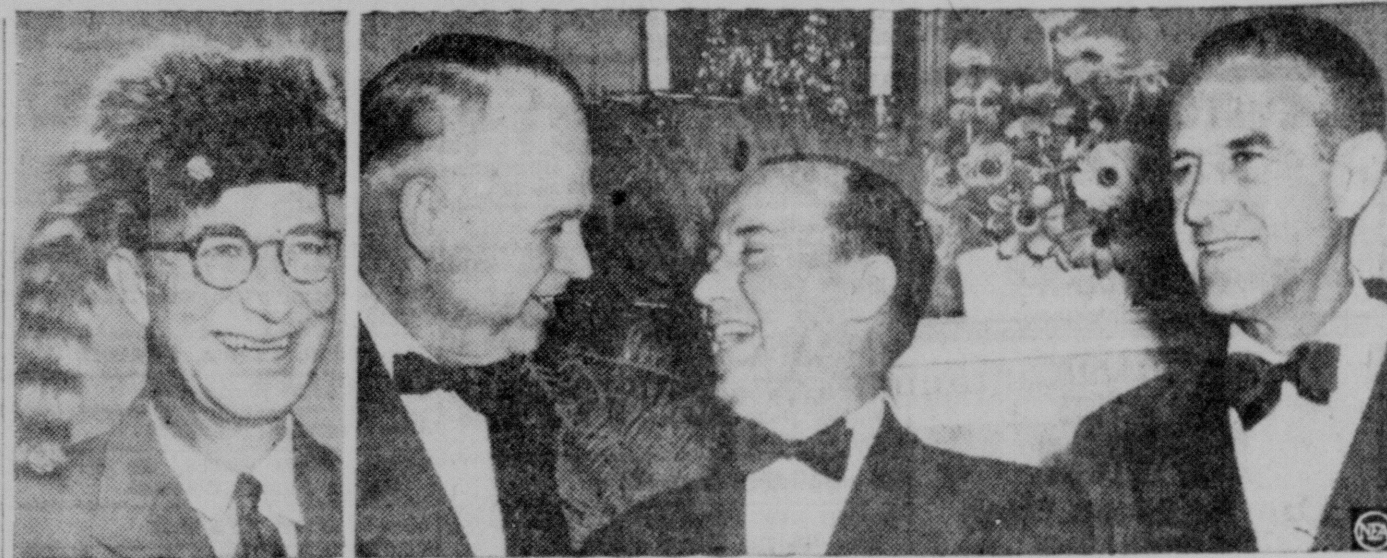

I HAVE HAD the pleasure recently of good talks with Kefauver, Stevenson, Harriman, and Kerr, among the leading Democratic aspirants, and at one time or other I have met Truman, Barkley, Vinson, Rayburn, Humphrey, and McMahon. What do they add up to? Suppose we take Stevenson first, even though Kefauver is far in the lead so far as delegates are concerned, because Stevenson's attitude is not finally clarified, and whatever he does will probably decide the fate of all the others.

The lowdown on Adlai Ewing Stevenson is something that makes him a rare bird indeed among politicians—he actually, truly does not want to run.

I met him in Chicago, listened to him speak at a meeting, and then had a drink with him while he ate half a grapefruit (he doesn't drink after dinner, and not much before). The next morning we flew to Springfield in his gubernatorial plane, had lunch, and later talked again.

Incidentally, I learned that you pronounce his first name "Adly," to rhyme with "Bradley."

The determining reason why he

trema for any public man to say a simple "I won't" to the presidency. Eisenhower faced this same dilemma in 1947-48.

There is only one man who can unhook Stevenson, and that is Stevenson himself. So long as he does not finally, explicitly, unequivocally announce that he will refuse to be a candidate even if drafted by the convention, there is bound to be more and more talk about vaudeville tricks pay off.

Merits to Kefauver as a candidate: (1) He has proved himself to be an extremely good vote getter, and his momentum, steadily increases. (2) Americans like crime-busters. Dewey got his start this way. (3) His personality is refreshing, his face comparatively new, and his rustic simplicity beguiling. (4) He had the courage to announce his candidacy before Truman withdrew from the race. (5) Labor likes him better than any candidate except Stevenson, and he will get powerful support among Negroes.

Demerits: (1) The big city machines detest him, and will do their best to stop him. This is partly because he is a lone wolf, an irregular, a non-conformist, and partly because the crime investigation upset the Democratic apparatus in states like Illinois. (2) Truman and the central hierarchy probably will oppose him at the convention. (3) So will most reactionaries in the South.

Kefauver said to me: "They told us we'd get trampled to death in New Hampshire. But look what happened. We had very strong advice not to go into Nebraska. Look what happened. Where are the other fellows going to get more delegates, if I have them!"

Averell Harriman? There are those who think—to modify an old joke from Harold Ickes—that Harriman is a bare-foot boy from the polo fields, nothing more. They are wrong. Actually the tradition whereby a man of enormous inherited wealth can become a strong partisan of the left is not at all rare in American politics, and can be perfectly genuine.

Harriman is not to be dismissed on account of his background, and though it will probably be a handicap, in actual fact, from the point of view of both national and international affairs, he has more concrete administrative experience than any other candidate.

Harriman, who has a lively and attractive character, is not going to have an easy time at the convention, though he takes his chances with complete seriousness. He is the only Democrat who has said aggressively, "I can beat Ike." But the machine bosses are, as I heard it put, "using him, not supporting him." The spark that could cause a landslide simply is not there.

He has the powerful New York delegation, but this is likely to melt away; in fact he was given this on a kind of temporary basis, to keep other candidates from raiding into it until convention time. Nevertheless bizarre things can happen at conventions, and Harriman should not be altogether dismissed. One crack is, "He will show up there in Roosevelt's cape."

The lowdown on Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia is that he cannot possibly be president, because the North will not accept him, and he has no illusions whatever about winning. It may surprise those who dislike him because he is coldly, implacably reactionary on the Negro problem to know that, from the point of view of sheer ability, he is quite possibly the best Democrat in the race.

Highly respected by his colleagues, inexhaustibly competent, with an intelligent record in foreign policy, a recluse except from his work, Russell has great advantages—if only he were not color-blind on civil rights.

He announced his candidacy for two reasons. First, he thought at the time that Truman would run, and he wanted to get into the field against him. Then, when Truman quit, he was stranded. Second, paradoxically, he wanted to create a situation that would save the party from being split, and prevent another Dixiecrat revolt.

By funneling votes to himself, and at the same time remaining within the party, Russell was playing for a united front against the Republicans in November. He will be a formidable power at the convention, though he cannot win.

Kerr? Nobody has taken him seriously since Kefauver murdered him in Nebraska.

Barkley and Rayburn? Dark horse possibilities, despite their ages.

Tomorrow: Why the Democrats meet second.

How Hot In the Sun? 139 In Central Park

NEW YORK (AP)—As New York's temperature zoomed to an all-time high for June 23, a lot of folks asked:

"Okay, it's hot, but how hot is it in the sun?"

The Weather Bureau consulted its special sun thermometer in Central Park and replied: "It's 139 degrees."

At about the same hour, it was so torrid that a third rail on the Third Avenue elevated line buckled.

How much do you know about what's happening inside the two major parties as convention time approaches? Here's the penetrating story on the struggle for political power, detailed by John Gunther, one of this generation's best-known reporters. This is the third of his four articles on the Democratic Party, written exclusively for NEA Service and The Democrat-Capital. They will be followed by five more "inside" reports on the Republican Party.

is reluctant is that he feels that it is his imperative, unavoidable duty to run for governor of Illinois again, win if possible, and put the affairs of that state, so long ill-governed, on a permanently sound foundation.

It is often said, additionally, that he would not like to run against Eisenhower because they are such good friends. Actually, the governor has only met Eisenhower twice, and on neither occasion did they have much chance to talk.

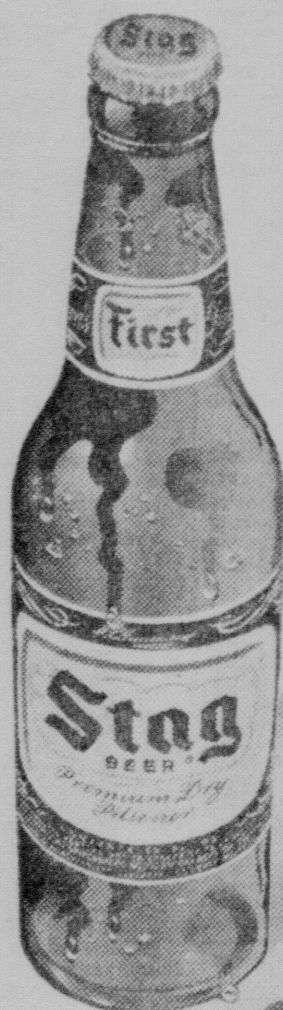

If Stevenson does decide to run, he will make up his mind without regard to the name of his opponent. He does not want to be maneuvered into the position of being just a "fair-weather" candidate, willing to run if the race is probably going to be easy (as many Democrats believe it would be against Taft), but not willing if it looks hard.

Onerous and agitated pressure is being exerted to make Stevenson declare. It is difficult in the ex-drafting him. Stevenson's advantages are many. He is, like Roosevelt, a patrician who has become a man of the people. He has, almost alone among candidates, what every president needs above all—a combination of both administrative and political experience. He has been an admirable governor, and he really believes in public service. He is liberal on labor, Negroes, and foreign policy. Yet he is enough of a middle-of-the-roader to Kefauver? He is a remarkably friendly man, but some people capture both wings of the party geographically, and he would be a tough-minded, wily and indefatigable to dislike or discount him. He has an excellent liberal record in Congress quite aside from the crime investigation, but many people think of him as a lightweight, almost as a vaudeville figure.

Sen. Estes Kefauver is not a vaudeville figure. He is a candidate in deadly earnest, whose

Girl Scout Camp Notes-- Scouts Lay Trails, Learn Knot Tying, Build Fires

Girl Scouts were laying trails from one end of camp to another Wednesday at Camp Sakajewae. The units paired together. One laid the trail while another followed. Besides tracking the girls learned to judge distance and to signal.
 Mrs. Betty Wilding assisted the girls in learning first aid and passing that badge. The girls also continued to practice knot tying and learned how to tie more knots.
 Though the wind made fire building dangerous, Unit 2, whose leader is Mrs. Wallace, cooked goulash out doors. Handicraft was dispensed with since the girls were participating in out-of-door activities.
 Girls who took part in the flag ceremonies were: DeeAnna Blaylock, Mickie Zurosouste, Sandra Bennett, Betty Bucholz. Joyce Le Begue raised the flag and Gloria Roff, Carolyn Weimholt, Deloris Brown, Barbara Elliot and Patricia Seifner lowered it.
 Mrs. J. W. Starke was in charge of the first aid tent.
 All in all the day was a successful one and the girls unanimously agreed that they enjoyed it fully.
 It was Brownie "Fly Up Day" at the Hubbard camp with Mrs. Fredonia Kingsburg reading the meaning of the day. The following mothers attended: Mrs. Ethel L. Smith, Mrs. Sadie Jackson, Mrs. Adell Ray and Mrs. Cynthia Campbell.
 The Brownies who "flew-up" were received by the Girl Scouts as they repeated their laws and Edna Mae, Greeley, Colo., spent several days last week with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis.

 Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jones, Mountain View, Calif., her sister, Mrs. Gerald Allen and son of Overland Park, Kan., were guests Tuesday and Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. John Neckerman.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Heinrich, Linda and John Jr., left Sunday for a trip to Canada. They will also visit Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., where Linda plans to enter in the fall.
 The Rev. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt and Lois Ann of O'Keene, Okla., were recent guests of Mrs. Lottie Meisenhaimen and John Friess. Mr. Schmidt was formerly a pastor of the local Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Mexican Admits He Killed Woman In a Hotel Room

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A 23-year-old Mexican has admitted the brutal hotel room slaying of Mrs. Irene Thompson, an attractive 32-year-old mother.
 Police Capt. John Buck reported last night Jose Romero had signed a statement saying he strangled Mrs. Thompson and left her partially nude body in a room at the Jefferson Hotel.
 Mrs. Thompson's body, clad only in panties, was found in the room Sunday. Her throat had been slashed with a broken bottle and an electric cord had been twisted around her neck.
 Romero told of having been in a fight with another man over Mrs. Thompson last Friday and then visiting her hotel room later that night. He said she had screamed insults at him and lunged toward him with a desk pen.
 Romero met Mrs. Thompson, mother of a 2-year-old daughter, at a dancing studio where she was employed as an instructor.
 He surrendered to police yesterday on a warrant charging him with the slaying.

Wake Up To More Comfort
 Without Nagging Backache
 Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. How the Conventions Work--

When Clark Calls 'Bama, Main Event Is Under Way

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of two dispatches by NEA's roving political reporter on how the national convention machinery operates.

By BRUCE BOSSAT
NEA Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO — When you hear a clerk intone "Alabamaah" some time during the third day of the national convention, you'll know the main event, the nominating of a presidential choice, is under way at last.

Then begins a parade to the rostrum of hand-picked speakers who will lay before the convention assembly and the radio-TV audience the purported qualifications of the candidates they favor. A fuller catalogue of human virtues you will likely never hear—until 1956 when we have the same thing again.

At this stage of the game, the pronoun "he" and the phrase "a man who" get tremendous work-outs. A speaker who actually mentions his candidate's name before the very end may lose his status in the nominators' union. It is supposed to be a surprise.

The rise of big-time TV is expected to have a somewhat curbing effect on all this oratory. Top politicians don't want home viewers and listeners drifting away to canasta and bridge. So they plan to hold nominating speeches to 15 minutes, and seconding talks to four or five minutes, with perhaps no more than four of the latter.

TV may also work a welcome change on the noisy convention hall demonstrations which are traditionally begun the moment a nominating speech winds up with: "Ladies and gentlemen, I give you the Honorable, the distinguished Senator —."

Naturally the candidate's object is always to have the longest and loudest demonstration. "Lately, too, there seems to have been some feeling that it helps to be novel. In the 1948 Democratic extravaganza, 48 white pigeons were released during the splurge for President Truman. It's perhaps debatable whether the hazard of a pigeon perched in the rafters overhead is the best clincher for a wavering delegate.

When the roll of states is called for nominating speeches, states high on the list, like Alabama, are usually induced by pre-arrangement to yield to one down the line which has a candidate to offer. Thus in 1952 Alabama may yield to Ohio so Senator Taft's name may be tossed in. And Colorado may give the floor to Kansas, General Eisenhower's home state.

When the last chorus of "I'm Looking Over a Four-leaf Clover" has been sung (Taft, 1948), when the tired banners and placards have been laid to rest, when it is clear that the party hopefuls are all great Americans from great states, then the moment of climax in the convention is at hand. It is time to ballot.

BETWEEN THE ACTS: End of nominating speech is always the signal for demonstrations, like this one in 1948. But TV may work a change in these floor shows by candidate's supporters.

Again, the clerk will drone out the roll of states. But this time, unless it wishes to "pass" while it watches the early trend, each state must stand up and be counted. The delegation chairman will rise and announce the vote, like this: "Arizona, the land of copper ceding ballots. In his frantic quest he runs the whole gamut from pleading to pressure.

At Philadelphia, in 1940, Harold Stassen, then Wendell Willkie's manager, was rustling delegates hard in an uphill fight. He wanted to talk to Alf Landon, 1936 GOP nominee and leader of the Kansas delegation. But the floor was too noisy.

So Landon and Stassen found a freight elevator, stationed policemen at top and bottom doors, and rode up and down while they had an earnest little talk. Kansas went for Willkie on the next ballot.

In the beginning, some delegations ride with favorite sons. Others are tightly bound to one candidate or another, either by choice or by state law. Still others are loosely tied and are most eager to sense the winner.

As the balloting goes on, voting shifts occur. Favorite sons drop out. The candidate with no reserve strength fades. The key delegations are faced with the big question: "Where do we go?"

To decide, they usually retire to some tiny cubicle off the floor, where debate will rage in a smoky haze. The tension may be terrific. Waiting too long may mean eating dust as the bandwagon disappears down the road. And this is the most unpalatable dish a politician can sample. In the Republican convention, Pennsylvania was too late in 1940, and Michigan missed in 1948. They are still sad about it.

At every stage the floor managers are usually in constant touch with the candidates themselves, or their top lieutenants. Telephone lines from the hall to important hotel suites downtown stay hot. The floor manager may need a quick answer from his man on what he thinks about China, or what he'd do about civil service in the Commerce Department. The reply might swing a delegation.

Sometimes internal delegation stresses break out on the floor. A delegate may be dissatisfied with his chairman's announcement of the state vote. He may demand—and get—a man-by-man poll of the delegation. If you're home, and they're polling New York (90-odd votes), this is the time to step out for refreshments.

These patterns are essentially the same for both parties, though they have different delegate totals, and the Democrats allow unit rule voting, under which a state may bind its whole delegation to vote as the majority does.

When the victor is finally determined, he comes into the hall to deliver his acceptance speech. What follows thereafter is most often downhill going.

The parliamentary procedures are repeated for selection of a vice president. But usually the new presidential nominee is given the main say in the choice and the convention routinely ratifies his decision. Big exception was the Truman-Wallace fight at Chicago in 1944, which overshadowed the presidential balloting.

Ex-Pow Re-Enlists
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Seven months of imprisonment by Communists in Korea failed to chill Leonard J. Maffioli's enthusiasm about being a U.S. Marine.

He enlisted here for another three-hitch after his first enlistment expired recently. Maffioli, a sergeant, was captured in November, 1950. He escaped when brought near the front lines to help handle other American prisoners.

NOW, TIDE WASHES CLOTHES WHITER THAN YOU CAN BLEACH THEM!

THE WASH TEST PROVES IT!

TIDE gets clothes WHITER—with no bleach!

Amazing new tests prove that Tide, used all alone, washes WHITER than any soap or "detergent" with a bleach added. It's washday's big news... and you owe it to your clothes to try it! You'll never want to put bleach in the wash water again, once you see how much whiter clothes come with Tide alone!

AND WHAT'S MORE...

NO OTHER WASHING PRODUCT with a bleach added WILL WASH YOUR CLOTHES AS WHITE AS TIDE ALONE!

YOU HAVE TO SEE IT TO BELIEVE IT! And you can see it! You can see how much whiter Tide alone gets clothes than any other washing product with a bleach added! No matter what bleach you use in the wash water... no matter what soap or "detergent" you use it with... your clothes won't come out so white as they will with Tide alone! Amazing new laboratory tests prove it—get Tide and prove it for yourself!

CLEANER CLOTHES, TOO! Tide gets clothes cleaner than any soap of any kind. Millions of women have proved it. No soap known will get out so much grimy dirt, yet leave clothes so free of dulling film! There's never been anything like Tide for washday miracles. There's still nothing like Tide!

IT'S A NEW TIDE MIRACLE!

Even if you bleach clothes overnight, they won't be so white as TIDE washes them!

THINK OF IT! You can take two towels; wash one with Tide alone, soak the other in a bleach overnight... and then compare them for whiteness. You'll see that the Tide-washed towel is actually whiter than the towel that was soaked in bleach! Why, except for unusual stains, you need never bother with bleaching again!

TIDE is milder for hands than any other leading "detergent."
So safe for washable colors!

YES! With all its cleaning and whitening action, Tide has an amazing new mildness. Not even the mildest "detergents" made especially for dishwashing are so gentle and kind to hands as Tide!

ACTUALLY BRIGHTENS COLORS! For dramatic proof of Tide's wonderful safety, watch soap-dulled wash prints and table linens come brighter after just one Tide wash. Yes, ma'am! Tide really cares for clothes and colors just as it does for your hands.

AND TIDE IS SO THRIFTY TO USE! Such a little Tide makes such oceans of rich, long-lasting suds... goes so far in hardest water, it's a miracle of economy.

"I'm hanging up whiter clothes—thanks to TIDE!"
says Mrs. Annamie Troast of Alwood, New Jersey.

"I've tried all the best washday soaps—the new 'detergents,' too. I've always added the best bleach I could buy to them, but my clothes never came so white as they did after my first wash using Tide alone! I still can hardly believe it—but it's true!"

NO OTHER WASHING PRODUCT CAN PROMISE ALL THIS!

Charge Reds Take Opposite Views at Talks

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Brig. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. today accused the Communists of simultaneously agreeing and disagreeing with Russia at the deadlocked Korean armistice talks.

The senior United Nations negotiator made the statement after hearing the Communist reply to his charge that Red insistence on forced return of war prisoners is inconsistent with the policy of Russia in World War II.

U.N. refusal to return prisoners who do not want to go home has blocked a Korean armistice for months.

"It is not apparent how you can at one and the same time both agree and disagree with the acts and declarations of the USSR," Harrison told the Communists at a 35-minute no-progress session at Panmunjom. Another meeting was set for tomorrow at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. EST Thursday).

Harrison told the Reds Saturday that Russian commanders in World War II promised surrounded Axis troops at Stalingrad and Budapest return to the country of their choice at the end of the war.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il replied today that Harrison "misinterpreted and distorted" the "ultimatum issued by the victorious Soviet Army to the encircled German, Hungarian and Italian troops." The chief Communist negotiator declared:

"After the conclusion of the second world war, the Soviet Union in strict adherence to the Geneva Convention repatriated all of the war prisoners held by her—German, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese—and of other countries—with the only exception of war criminals."

He insisted that the guarantees made at Budapest and Stalingrad did not involve prisoners but were actions "of a victorious army demanding the surrender of a losing army during hostilities."

"It is interesting to note that you find it necessary to defend the Soviet Union," Harrison replied. "We merely were showing that your position regarding the question of prisoners of war contradicts the government from which you have taken your ideology."

Mr. Ddom described step by step the work of the MFA from the breeding of hybrids through the stages of harvesting, grading and sacking. A slide picture, with colorful pictures of the hybrids at various stages, added much to the talk.

Don King, program chairman for the month of June, introduced the speaker.

Guests at the meeting were George Decker, Omaha, Neb.; A. J. Campbell, and Ivan Berry, Sedalia.

Second of a Series—

Only One Man Will Ever Know Big Secret of Polio Tests

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Only one man will ever know the big secret of the polio test aimed at preventing infantile paralysis.

This secret is: Which children actually will get the blood medicine—gamma globulin or G.G.—that may neutralize the polio virus before it can cause paralysis.

In towns hit by polio epidemics, some 30,000 children will be given the G.G. injections. Another 30,000 will get injections from vials that look exactly like the G.G. vials, but these shots will be only innocuous gelatin.

The children, their parents, and doctors in the town will not know which youngsters got the G.G., and which got the gelatin. The only man who will know will be a statistician, keeping a master chart.

This is the only way in which to run, fairly and scientifically, a great human experiment to test a medicine that may bring a breakthrough against polio.

Each vial, whether of G.G. or gelatin, will bear a number. When its contents are injected, the child's name will be marked down with the number on that vial. This list will go to the master file.

All summer, doctors will observe the children, and report to the master file which ones, if any, develop polio. When those results are in, the statistician can compare the two groups of children.

If there is no difference—G.G. was just another empty hope. In monkeys, it's found that the polio virus gets into the bloodstream before it enters nerves and causes paralysis. G.G. shots given to monkeys can capture and neutralize the virus while it is in their blood.

But we don't know whether the virus behaves the same way in humans, and whether G.G. can keep the virus out of human nerves. G.G. is a protein, from blood, which carries antibodies against the virus.

The human tests are supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Medical teams are waiting to move now into polio-stricken towns. They will choose places where a polio epidemic is on the rise, but not yet at its peak, a town where presumably many children have just been exposed to the virus, or are likely to get it.

In each town, the shots of G.G. or gelatin will be given to children in the age group most affected there. In one place it may be youngsters 5 to 10 years old, in another those 10 to 15.

All the shots will be given in four or five days time, by having children come to special centers. The towns likely will be of 60,000 to 100,000 population. It's hoped they will represent major geographical areas.

The first experiment was run last summer in Provo, Utah, with 4,000 children getting the G.G., and 3,000 not.

All parents, doctors and health authorities co-operated beautifully. In either group got paralytic polio, but too small a number to show whether G.G. works. Few children in either group got paralytic polio.

Paralytic polio relatively speaking, is fairly uncommon. It's called an epidemic when only 20 persons out

Mississippi GOP Faction Leaders Prepare for Fight

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two leaders of Mississippi's predominantly white Republican faction leave for Chicago Saturday to prepare for a showdown fight for national party recognition.

They are Anson Sheldon of Greenville, stat. chairman of the "Lily White" faction, and his father George Sheldon of Clinton.

Two rival factions will have delegations at the national convention next month—the "Lily Whites" with pro-Eisenhower leanings but unpicked to any candidate and the predominantly Negro group known as the "Black and Tan," which is pro-Taft. The Negro faction always has been seated by the national party.

of 100,000 get the disease.

The tests therefore must be run on 50,000 to 50,000 youngsters for G.G. to show any effect—if it has effect.

All parents have a stake in the tests and there are definite things parents can do to make the experiments succeed. The foundation stresses:

Do NOT try to get G.G. this summer for your child.

No one knows if it will do the slightest good. The supply of G.G. is scarce, and if doctors use it willy-nilly there may not be enough for the essential polio test.

Remember this: The G.G. shots cannot do anything once polio has developed, when the virus has already affected nerves. If it does any good, it must be given BEFORE the virus has invaded nerves. It would have to be given at a time shortly before or when the virus was in the bloodstream.

The G.G. shot would stay effective only three to six weeks, before your own body removed it from the blood. The G.G. shots would have to be repeated to give continuing protection.

Tomorrow: Limitations of G.G., and the prospects for a real vaccine.

Cutting Out Paper Dolls
Puts the Egan in the Money

PAPER DOLL CUTTERS Erica and Harold Egan at work. "You can do just as well on the kitchen table," they admit.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Erica Egan is a little old to be making with paper dolls, so she calls it paper culture. But it's still paper dolls, only grown-up and refined so it's almost a fine art.
Using ordinary craft paper and an ordinary pair of scissors—plus an extraordinary imagination—she and her husband, Harold, can fashion paper productions that are startling. They can make a 15-foot statue for a store window. Or a 60-foot eagle for a bond drive. Or a tiny, appealing Christmas tree ornament.

Mrs. Egan took a sheet of pink and yellow and purple paper, and some little pieces of red and blue. She snipped and curled and scored (which is running a sharp edge over the paper and then folding it). In less than five minutes she had a girl's head—the pink was for face, the yellow her curly hair, the purple her hat, the red her lips, the blue her eyes.

"This is really an old Polish art," said Mrs. Egan, looking arty in a flowing pink smock. "The peasants would paste colored paper to empty egg shells and use them for ornaments on Christmas trees."

She learned the knack while working as an assistant art director in the Polish consulate. It intrigued her, and she practiced at home.
"For a year," she says, "my Both Candidates Gain Votes From Penn. Delegates"

PHILADELPHIA — Substantial gains for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and a hard core of support for Sen. Robert A. Taft both are visible in a new Associated Press poll of Pennsylvania's delegation to the Republican National Convention.

Eisenhower, the poll showed, is preferred by 32 delegates in the 70-vote group. That represents a gain of 12 since the previous AP poll two months ago.
Taft, has the backing of 24 delegates, a gain of five. Many of them say firmly they will not vote for Eisenhower at the convention.

The number of delegates undecided or not willing to express a preference at this point—19 days in advance of the convention—has been shrinking steadily. The AP poll, which once listed 32 delegates in this group, now shows only 14.
Nevertheless, the intervening weeks have not diminished the prospective influence of Gov. John S. Fine in the Pennsylvania delegation picture. Fine generally has been credited with being in a position to advise or guide the votes of 32 delegates; the governor himself has said he believes the total is "not less than that."

A blanket and gun were the only implements needed to claim land during the squatter period of California's history.

How to Fumigate Small Grain Bin

1. What to use: There are several fumigating materials on the market. All will give good results if used right. A mixed fumigant, usually consisting of carbon tetrachloride mixed with ethylene dichloride, carbon disulphide, ethylene dibromide, or trichlorethylene, is recommended. If carbon disulphide is used alone remember to be careful as it presents a fire hazard.
2. How much to use: The amounts to use vary somewhat with each bin, depending upon tightness of the bin, moisture content of the grain, presence of dockage and chaff, high winds, high temperatures, diameter of the bins, etc. There are some "rules-of-thumb," however, that will give you an idea how much to use on your bins.
For most of the mixed fumigants, use:
2 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in steel bins.
3 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in wooden bins lined with roofing paper.
4 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in unlined wooden bins.
If the 3 to 1 mixture of ethylene dichloride and carbon tetrachloride is used the dosage must be increased to:
3 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in steel bins.
4 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in wooden bins lined with roofing paper.
6 gallons per 1,000 bushels of grain in unlined wooden bins.
3. How to use it: (a). Whenever possible, fumigate only on a mild, still day. For best result, temperatures should be 65 degrees to 75 degrees, and wind velocities below 12 to 15 miles per hour.
(b). Level the surface of the grain. The fumigant is a liquid that quickly evaporates. The fumes are heavier than air, and therefore seep down through the grain. If the grain is not level at the surface, the low spots will get most of the fumes, and the higher places will not get enough to kill the insects.
(c). Be sure there are at least 6 inches of wall space between the top of the leveled grain and the top of the bin. If this free-board is not left, fumes will "spill" over the sides of the bin.
4. Spray the fumigant as uniformly as possible over the surface of the grain. Always stay on the outside of the bin as you apply the fumigant. For most farm bins, an ordinary bucket pump is about the best to use. The pump should have bronze fittings and use a plastic-lined or plastic hose that will resist the action of the carbon tetrachloride.
CAUTIONS: To protect yourself, you should always wear a gas mask approved by the U. S. Bureau of Mines for the type of fumigant being used.
Do not spill fumigant on clothes or shoes. If any is spilled, remove clothes immediately, and wash the skin with soap and water. Otherwise severe blistering may result.
Never enter a bin after the fumigant has been applied unless you are wearing an approved gas mask.
5. After applying the fumigant, spread a tarp over the grain to help hold the fumes in the bin.

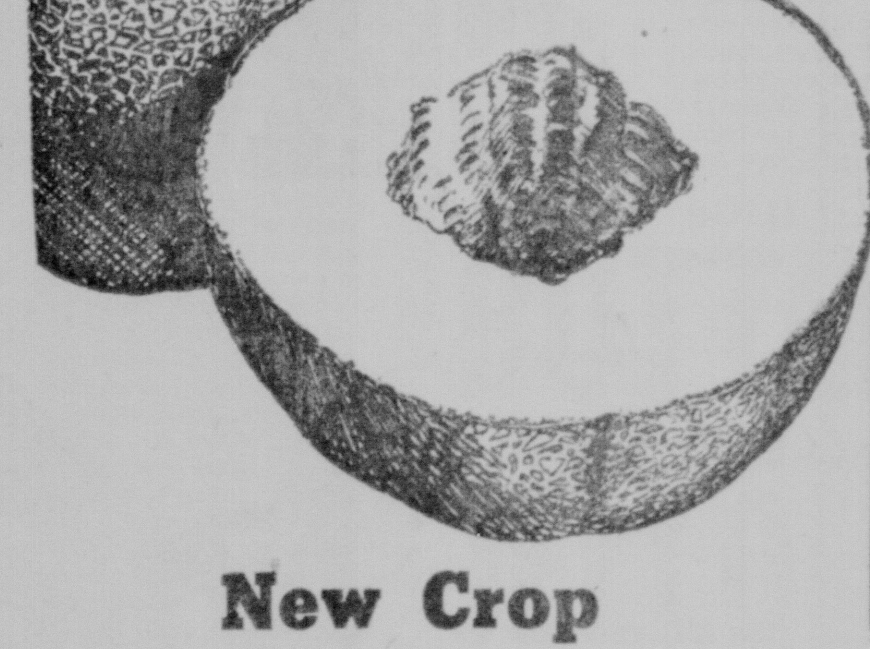

help hold the fumes in the bin. fumigate a bin by yourself. Have someone else around to help you in case you should get too much fumes.

CALCULATED DESTRUCTION—More than four months of time, $200,000 in money, and the efforts of a 60-man crew have been necessary to effect this scene of wartime destruction at Olney, Md. Designed to serve as a training ground for Civil Defense workers, it embodies most demolition problems that might be met after an air raid.

Bob Thomas In Hollywood—

Tyrone Power Free for First Time In 16 Years From Studio

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A moving van recently pulled up before Tyrone Power's dressing room on the 20th Century-Fox lot and hauled away all the actor's personal effects. This signaled the end of one of the longest and most successful contracts in movie history.

Power is not completely severed from the studio. He still has a picture to do there in 1953 and another in 1954. But for the first time in 16 years, he is free of studio control.

How does it feel?

"Great," he replied. "I'm beginning to realize what the outside world is like. After all, I was 16 years at Fox and I did only one picture for another studio. That was 'Marie Antoinette,' which was 14 years ago!"

Power was frank to admit that his severance was initiated by the studio. His regular contract would have expired in December, and the studio wanted to make an adjustment. "I wanted to be free right away so I could take this deal," he remarked.

By "this deal," he was referring to his current picture, "Mississippi Gambler." It is one of those fabulous contracts which U-I has also offered to such stars as Errol Flynn, Gregory Peck, Irene Dunne, James Stewart and Alan Ladd. The stars get no pay for their films, but take 50 per cent of the profits.

"It's the only kind of a deal that makes sense in these times," Powers remarked. "Even if Fox paid me five times what I was getting, I couldn't keep any more than I do. But under the U-I deal, the money comes in over a period of time and piles up in other countries. Then I can go to those countries and spend it."

He remarked that the system was also good for the studio, which might not be able to make the picture.

Power was reflecting on his long career at Fox, and I asked him to name his best picture during that time.

"As far as I was concerned 'Nightmare Alley,' he answered without hesitation. "But the studio did nothing to sell it, and it wasn't a success."

"As far as the studio was concerned, I guess the most successful pictures were 'Alexander's Ragtime Band,' 'Jesse James,' 'Mark of Zorro' and 'Blood and Sand.'"

I also asked which of his pictures he liked the least.

"There were a lot of them," he replied. "There was a dilly called 'Daytime Wife.' And 'Prince of Foxes,' 'Captain from Castile' and a thing called 'Rose of Washington Square.'"

Power's plans are pretty well laid out for him. In November, he goes on a concert tour with "John Brown's Body." That's an ambitious offering which will be performed by Power, Raymond Massey, two other performers and a 20-voice male choir.

"The concert field is terrific," Power enthused. "It's not like doing a legitimate play, where you throw yourself on the market. We

Hal Boyle's Column--

Los Alamos Is Large Town Without Cemetery or Grave

LOS ALAMOS, N. M. (AP)—There is no cemetery here in the birthplace of the atom bomb.

That fact is a clue to the biggest defect of living in a government-built community that is ideal in many ways.

As one of the 12,800 workers in this heart center of America's atomic weapon research put it: "People come, people go. But nobody really feels it is home. Very few expect to die here and I guess that is why there isn't any cemetery."

Los Alamos today is perhaps the most unusual community in the nation. When it was conceived in 1943 it was thought it would never grow beyond a population of 700. Now it is a small city of nearly 13,000 scientists and technicians, sprawling over several mesas in an isolated, 86,000-acre, closely-guarded reservation in the Jemez Mountains. It is still growing rapidly and work is under way on a new 120 million dollar laboratory.

The chief industry of this strange city is to develop better instruments for widespread atomic death.

There are no slums. There is no unemployment. The city has a fine school system. It has wonderful recreational facilities, including a baseball field, swimming pool, ice skating rink, ski lift, and its own small symphony orchestra.

Unlike most other cities throughout the land, it has no major parking problem. The crime rate is unbelievably low. The intelligence level of its citizens is perhaps the highest achieved by any city in history. At least 280 have earned Ph. D. degrees.

There are more than 80 social and professional organizations. There are 14 organized church groups.

The happy shouts of children and the barking of dogs ring across the neat, well-tended lawns all day long.

"We are famous for babies, dogs and bombs—in that order," one Atomic Energy Commission employee said. "This is a wonderful place to raise children and we have one of the highest birth rates in the country."

"About 15 per cent of the population is under five years of age. The average age here is 25—eight years younger than the national average, which is 33. There are only about 410 persons here over 60."

Why, then, isn't Los Alamos a perfect place to live? It is because the families here feel they dwell in a guarded fishbowl? "No, not any more," one employee said. "The people have learned to live with secrecy and it is no longer the shadow over them that it was a few years ago."

As a matter of fact, those who live here now are about equally divided over whether they like or dislike it. There is a shortage of housing, and families have to wait their turn to move into the district which has the best homes.

This district is known locally as "Snob Hill" by those who don't live there.

A major source of discontent is that nobody here can own his own home in Los Alamos. He can only rent it from the government. Many workers leave because of this. They want to settle down in a place where they can own their own house.

"The scientific people come here for a few years to get prestige," one man summed it up. "Then they leave to take better jobs in industry or university teaching."

An American doesn't want to die in a town where he can't even buy a home site. Los Alamos will be here for a long, long time. It is vital to the nation.

But it will never be a real city until the people who work here have a feeling of ownership and community interest—until they can buy a home and a graveyard plot.

Until this happens—if it ever does—Los Alamos will remain only a government collection of brilliant intellectuals in transit, their minds here, their hearts elsewhere.

Lion Cub Sent To Zoo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—"The cub is six months old now and doesn't know its own strength."

For this reason, Mrs. Sidney Levin thinks she made a wise decision in sending the little lion to the zoo. She said Sheba was given to her son, Donn, a professional wrestler, while he was "camping" in Texas in December.

Donn and his wife, Harriet, used to take Sheba out for walks on a leash. At home, the "kitten" would play with their German shepherd dog. But Mrs. Levin thought the cub was getting too big to play with her 18-month-old grandson.

Basque Descendants

The "small, dark" persons found in Ireland, Scotland and Wales may be descendants of an ancient race of which the Basques, in Spain, are the principal survivors, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

GI In Famed Army Band Gets Diploma From Hubbard High

A Concordia, Mo., soldier James W. Collins joined the parade of June graduates recently when he was awarded a high school diploma, issued by Hubbard High School, Sedalia, for his initiative and off-duty effort in completing the army's general education development course. He is presently assigned to Headquarters Detachment, No. 2, Ft. Riley, Kan.

Cpl. Collins, route 1, Concordia, attended Howard High School at Warrensburg before entering the service in 1943, and completed the Army CED course in Germany five years later. His diploma, presented at the Education Center at Ft. Riley by Earl R. McKown, education supervisor for the fort, was issued through Hubbard High School because the Warrensburg school has since been consolidated with the Sedalia institution.

Since entering the service, Corporal Collins has served 80 months in Europe and approximately three years of that time he was a member of the famous 427th "General Huebner's" army band. While the trombone is his favorite instrument, he also plays others and during his duty with the 427th made appearances before many dignitaries including the king, queen and crown prince of Norway, General Bradley, Eisenhower, Huebner and others. The corporal still wears the gold shoulder loop and dark necktie by special authorization, as distinctive marks of membership in Lt. General Huebner's band.

Spaghetti Cooking Aided By Radio

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP)—Felice Piromalli, an engineer, a busy man in Southern Calabria, likes his spaghetti "al dente"—meaning "just so", with thumb and forefinger rounded in a satisfied circle.

To get his wish he rigged up an oscillator and connected it to the spark plugs of his automobile motor. This, in effect, gave him a high-frequency transmitter which he synthesized with his radio receiver at home.

Now when the Piromalli radio flashes a series of "cri-cri-cri", Mrs. Piromalli knows that her husband is about 15 miles away and hurrying home. His wife then pumps the spaghetti in the pot.

Reds Rename Himalayas

HONG KONG (AP)—The Chinese Red Ministry of Interior recently renamed the outer Himalayas across Central Tibet as the Kai-jas Range.

The pro-Communist newspaper, Ta Kung Pao, reporting the order said "the extremely erroneous name outer Himalayas... was used according to the imperialist point of view."

Mayo Doctor Is 96

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Dr. Christopher Graham, only living member of the original Mayo Clinic staff, is 96, but still maintains an active interest in two hobbies—Holstein cattle breeding and flower gardening.

Dr. Graham was the first intern in St. Mary's Hospital, one of several hospitals which operate closely with the famed clinic. Dr. Graham and his wife, 89, have been married 53 years.

Old Violin Still In Use

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Stanley Plummer, concertmaster with the Pasadena Civic Orchestra, is using a rare 207-year-old Guadagnini violin.

Plummer, also a music student at Pasadena City College, was loaned the violin by his private teacher, Vera Barstow, former concert violinist.

The instrument was made, Plummer says, in Piacenza, Italy, by J.P. Guadagnini, a genius-craftsman of the 18th Century.

Counterfeiters Scare Merchants

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An out-of-town guest at a hotel summoned U.S. Secret Service Agent Tom Hanson after trying in vain to get merchants to accept his $10 bill. Drawn on the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank, Hanson explained to the puzzled visitor that 30 counterfeit $10 bills, all on the same bank, had been passed here recently.

Mexico's New Election Law Aimed at Reducing Bloodshed

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico's new election law, aimed at reducing bloodshed at the ballot boxes, will have its first major test in the July 6 presidential election.

The new law abolished the old system by which the first three voters to arrive at the polling booth became the election officials.

'Good Girls' Meet Sailors Who Like It

MIDDLESBROUGH, England (AP)—Progress was reported today in this city's good girl vs. bad girl competition for the favor of sailors.

The nice girls are going strong. It was said by the Rev. Cyril Kettle, 35-year-old chaplain of the Mission of Seamen.

The sailors are flocking in greater numbers to his mission where, just as the Rev. Mr. Kettle promises on visits to arriving ships, they can meet some of the whole-some and pretty girls of the city.

Middlesbrough, an industrial and shipping center of 150,000, has become a bright spot on many a sailor's list.

The Rev. Mr. Kettle's project has attracted a great deal of attention, some reports have suggested that he has organized the proper girls of the town to lure sailors away from the girls, to be found in any port, who aren't so nice.

It isn't like that, he protested. There is no exciting competition in the streets between his team and the good time girls. But he does make it possible, and easy, for sailors who land in Middlesbrough to meet girls who can give seamen a memorable and proper evening.

"I wish the mission could supply a few more," the chaplain said. "It's quite a job frequently to turn up a dozen on short notice."

Who are the girls? "Friendly, church-going and, in many cases, very pretty girls who know a sailor needs a girl to talk to after days and weeks at sea. I like them peppy, and it helps a great deal if they are tireless dancers. Our little church supplies most of the girls but we manage to borrow some from other churches."

"The other churches sometimes are a little unhappy when I make raids on their pretty girls, because the other churches have their own social programs. But the co-operation really is splendid."

Any sailor may find a girl friend here. Many enduring friendships have been formed and, in the Rev. Mr. Kettle's experience, the boy-meets-girl department of the mission has produced at least one highly successful marriage.

State Troopers Will Help Keep Order At Mine Workers Rally

MANCHESTER, Ky. (AP)—Gov. Lawrence Wetherby has promised to send extra state troopers here Monday to prevent trouble at a United Mine Workers mass rally.

Local authorities and UMW President John L. Lewis requested the troopers after two shooting afrays this week.

The union, striving to organize nonunion miners in Clay and Leslie counties, expects to mass more than 6,000 members in a demonstration of strength. This is the last nonunion stronghold in the Eastern Kentucky coalfields.

Three UMW organizers were seriously wounded by gunfire in an ambush Tuesday night and a union local committeeman's store was riddled by machine-gun bullets yesterday.

Takes American Expert to Learn To Use Pleats

NEW YORK (AP)—It took an American designer to learn how to use pleats.

She is Hannah Troy, and her fall collection, previewed today for some 150 visiting fashion editors, is full of dresses using pleats and tucks in such a way that the waistline is kept always slim, and the skirt flows in a fluid line.

Mrs. Troy does it by starting her pleats at the hipbone, leaving the midriff slim and smooth. She uses pleats and tucks in sunburst and shutter effects, puts them in wool jersey day dresses and taffeta cocktail frocks, uses them in bodices as well as skirts.

Her collection, ranging from tailored suits to evening dresses, shows the kind of fresh originality for which U.S. designers are becoming famous, yet there are no extreme silhouettes.

The clothes are smooth, designed to fit the body contours and eminently wearable.

Oleg Cassini, also showing today, demonstrated how one dress can do the work of two. One instance is a black velvet cocktail dress with one red sleeve which can be removed, leaving a more formal dress with one shoulder bare. Another is a navy wool sheath with a removable apron of matching silk barathea.

Cassini sticks to the pencil-slim silhouette, achieves fullness by removable devices such as aprons and stoles. He likes high, shirt-waist collars on day dresses, necklines as low as the law allows on after-five costumes.

His collection highlights rich, handsome materials and simple lines. He says:

"A woman should not hide herself behind a lot of detail. Simplicity is the keynote to effectiveness. Don't try to wear the kitchen sink."

Automotive Hint

If one or two cylinders of an automobile engine are worn, blue exhaust smoke will be emitted in periodic puffs; if all cylinders are worn, emission will be constant.

Long Beach Beauty Paraders Get Chilly

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The sun did a fadeout in Long Beach yesterday and put a chill on the parade of the prettiest girls of 30 nations competing for the title of Miss Universe. Most of the 70 candidates, 40 of them from the United States, were forced to don wraps over their bathing suits, hiding their charms from nearly 50,000 persons who lined the streets to watch the parade.

YESTERDAY'S OR TODAY'S?

WHICH ONE IS THE FRESHEST?

SAY BUB, DID YOU CALL FOR INFORMATION OR FOR FUN?

DO I GET A CHOICE? MAKE MINE A BOTTLE OF FUN!

DON'T YOU MEAN A "BARREL" OF FUN?

YES—THE BARREL OF FUN THAT COMES IN A BOTTLE—A BOTTLE OF B-1!

BROTHER, YOU JUST SAID A DELICIOUS MOUTHFUL AND I'LL B-1 OF THE MANY THAT SAY...

LIFE'S MORE FUN...

WHEN YOU DRINK B-1

B-1 Lemon-Lime Soda

Delicious Nutritious Plus vitamin B1
